Castro Demands U.S. Quit Naval Base At Guantanamo In First Talk With Thant

By GEORGE ARFELD

HAVANA, AP—Acting Secretary-General U Thant scheduled a second meeting with Prime Minister Fidel Castro today to try to win agreement for U.N. verification of Moscow's promises to remove its missiles from Cuba.

An initial two-hour, 10-minute session between Thant and the bearded Cuban leader made no headway Tuesday, informants said. Castro reportedly stuck to such demands as abandonment by the United States of its Guantanamo naval base in southeastern Cuba.

The United States already has rejected Castro's demands, made last weekend. He also demanded lifting of all economic measures against his regime and guarantees against hit-run raids and invasion preparations.

IS UNYIELDING

Despite the reported lack of progress, a spokesman for Thant called the meeting "very useful."

A communique issued afterward said "Cuba fixed her position and viewpoints with clarity," which informants said meant Castro was unyielding in his demands.

President Osvaldo Dorticos took part in the meeting.

The U.S. naval blockade remained in suspension as Thant and Castro prepared for their second session. Thant asked that the blockade of offensive arms shipments to Cuba be lifted before he began his Havana discussions.

FLEET ON STATION

In Washington, informants said that although the blockade was suspended the quarantine fleet of carriers, cruisers, destroyers and submarines was still on station but pulled into a more compact patrol area.

The United States also suspended its aerial surveillance of Cuba to ease the atmosphere for the Thant-Castro meeting.

87 Landowners Of Briton Visit Eisenhower Farm

American farmers are extravagant with their land!

That's the opinion of 87 British landowners and their wives who, this morning, toured General Eisenhower's farm and the battlefield as part of a two-week tour which ends Friday morning when they will return to England from New York.

"American farmers can afford to be extravagant with their land because they have so much of it," explained Charles Graham, Cumberland, spokesman for the Association of Country Landowners of England. The average farm represented by the visitors is 300 acres, although the average size farm of most of the 38,000 members in England and Wales is about 60 acres.

The association protects the interests of all types of agricultural production in England, and is similar to U. S. organizations set up for the same purpose.

FEW PROBLEMS

"British farmers really have few of the problems of American producers, because we have a strong organization which has been able to work closely with government," Graham said. He added that the common market is of prime importance now to the future of England's agriculture.

About 70 per cent of England's 3,000,000 acres of farm lands is owned by association members.

The group met early this morning with General Eisenhower in his offices on Carlisle St., and toured the farm with General Arthur S. Nevins. They will be guests of the School of Agriculture at Pennsylvania State University tonight at a "donut and (Continued On Page 2)

P. WAYBRIGHT IS NOMINATED FOR P.A. HONOR

The Gettysburg Young Farmers Association Tuesday evening elected the name of Paul Waybright, a member of the local group, as a candidate for the Outstanding Young Farmer award to be given by the state Young Farmers Association.

Lyndale Brandon and John Schwartz were elected as delegates from the local group to the state Young Farmers convention to be held November 20 at Pennsylvania State University.

President Lyndale Brandon, at Tuesday's meeting in the Gettysburg high school agriculture room, named Wilbur Waybright, Roy Weaver and Horace Waybright as the nominating committee.

County agent Frank Zettie introduced Lee Snyder, agricultural engineer from Pennsylvania State University, who spoke on "Materials Handling."

Snyder told the group that improvements to save time and labor do not necessarily mean purchase of new machines and equipment, but rather, most frequently, means rearrangement of location of things to help in quicker handling.

He urged the young farmers to "look ten years into the future" in determining the location of equipment in setting up systems for handling such items as grain, hay, feed and silage. Showing slides depicting various materials handling systems, he described both the good points and had points of the various programs and noted that the individual farmer "must be the one to make the choice, when necessary, between convenience and economy."

The date for the annual banquet was changed to Monday, November 12, at 6:30 p.m. at the request of chairman Irvin Conover. John Schwartz is chairman of the program committee.

SHOWERS CUT RAIN SHORTAGE

Overnight showers that totaled 1.21 inches gave October a slight surplus of rainfall and made it the third month in the first 10 months of the year to receive more than normal rainfall.

Seven months have been dry and, at the end of the first 10 months of 1962, the year remains 4.76 inches short of rain.

Only February and September had received above-normal rainfall and September's was only 0.21 inches above normal. The surplus for October was exactly double that amount. Total rainfall this month was 3.72 inches. Normal is 3.30 inches. There were measurable amounts of rain on only six days of this month.

Temperatures fluctuated from 28 degrees last Thursday morning to a high of 85 degrees reached on October 11 and 12. Freezing temperatures were recorded on four mornings.

The average daily high reading was 67.26 degrees and the daily low readings averaged 44.48 degrees making the month's average 55.87 degrees. Normal for October is 56.3 degrees.

There were snow flurries, fog and thunder showers to give variety to the month's weather.

Menon Loses Defense Post

NEW DELHI (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru today took over the Defense Ministry from V. K. Krishna Menon. Menon was named minister of defense production.

A Cabinet communique announced the change. It came in a rising tide of criticism of Menon for failing to prepare India's defenses adequately against Chinese Communist attack.

The announcement said President Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan asked Nehru to take over the defense post.

In fact, Nehru has been handling the job for the past week, relegating Menon to the background.

The decision to replace Menon was taken at a Cabinet meeting which outsiders thought must have been heated.

At one point, an information officer was called to handle an important announcement. But then he was sent away with the word that no announcement was coming.

India Seeking Aid From 'All Friendly Nations' In War Against Red China

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Close quarter fighting between Indian and Chinese Communist troops was reported today on the potentially most vulnerable invasion route to the plains of Assam.

A Defense Ministry spokesman said an exchange of fire at fairly close quarters occurred Tuesday near Wabaz, at the eastern end of the frontier near Burma. It lies in the Luit River valley, the easiest route through the Himalayas for Red Chinese armies.

The spokesman indicated the Communists might be trying to outflank the Indians at Wabaz.

SITUATION UNCHANGED

In the only other fighting reported in the last 24 hours, the spokesman said Indians continued to shell the Chinese around Jang, five miles east of the captured monastery town of Towang on another route to the Assam plains.

The spokesman denied the Indians were attempting a limited offensive in the area, however.

Some 1,000 miles to the northwest in the other battle sector in Ladakh, there was no change in the situation, the spokesman said.

Asked whether the Soviet Union, an ally of Red China, is sending arms to India, the spokesman replied: "Certain equipment was ordered from that country and it is coming according to schedule."

He declined to discuss individual items such as the dozen jet fighters that India has ordered from the Soviet Union.

SEEK MORE AID

Since the Red Chinese launched their all-out offensive Oct. 20, the spokesman said, "We have been approaching all friendly countries from which we might get equipment and supplies."

Sources in Moscow have indicated the Soviets will not provide weapons for the Indians to fight the Red Chinese.

Shipments of British infantry weapons have been received here from Britain, the United States and (Continued On Page 3)

FOUR TRAFFIC MISHAPS ARE BEING PROBED

Borough police reported today investigation of four auto accidents in the borough.

This morning at 11:20 o'clock cars operated by John F. Connolly, Port Chester, N. Y., and Edwin S. Longanecker, Gettysburg R. 2, collided at the intersection of S. Washington and W. Middle Sts.

Borough police said Connolly failed to stop for the red blinker light and the front of his car crashed into the side of the east-bound car of Longanecker on W. Middle St. Damage was estimated at $150 to each vehicle. Police said they will bring a charge of failing to stop for the light against Connolly.

TRUCK "JUMPED"

This morning at 8 o'clock a truck operated by Terry Sheaffer, 18, Biglerville R. 1, collided with a car operated by Richard F. Lawrence, 54, McSherrystown. Borough police said Sheaffer was parked at the side of Carlisle St., in the 200 block, and was waiting for traffic to clear before pulling out into the traveled portion of the highway. Sheaffer had the vehicle in gear and his foot slipped off the clutch, causing the truck to "jump" into the side of the Lawrence auto, police said. Both vehicles were headed north at the time of the accident.

Police estimated damage to the truck owned by Shaeffer Brothers of Biglerville and Brysonia at $75, and to Lawrence's car which was owned by Wigand's Auto Rental, Lancaster, at $175.

Dr. Baughman Scholarship At Seminary Announced At Testimonial Dinner Here

INAUGURAL DAY HERE IS OPENED BY SYMPOSIUM

At 10 o'clock this morning in the Church of the Abiding Presence at the seminary, Dr. Abdel Ross Wentz, president emeritus of the seminary, moderated a symposium on theological education which started the inaugural day's proceedings.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock Dr. Donald Heiges will be inaugurated as the ninth president of the seminary.

Participants in the symposium were Dr. Conrad Bergendoff, the executive secretary of the Board of Theological Education of the Lutheran Church in America, who spoke on "The Implications of Our Confession of Faith for Theological Education." Dr. Bergendoff said the second article of the new Lutheran church constitution points the way to what should be the pastor's understanding of his ministry in the church and that, in essence, is the communication of the gospel of Jesus Christ. All that the pastor does must be submitted to this criterion. "Our confession of faith is under the scrutiny of the gospel of Jesus Christ," he said.

"WONDERFUL CHALLENGE"

Dr. Gerald C. Brauer, dean of the Divinity School at the University of Chicago, joined Dr. Bergendoff and discussed "The Implications of Our Understanding of the Ministry for Theological Education." Dr. Brauer said it is of utmost importance that a theological school "seek to understand the change which is taking place in the role of the church and the ministry so that it may more effectively prepare its students to communicate in a truly meaningful way the gospel of Christ to our present age and times."

Dr. Charles L. Taylor of the Protestant Episcopal Church, executive secretary of the American Association of Theological Schools, spoke on "The Implications of Our Understanding of the Ministry for Theological Education." (Continued On Page 2)

Will Use Radio Calls In Campaign Sunday

WGFT will present a 30-minute "open mike" political program Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in which local telephone calls to Congressman George A. Goodling will be broadcast. This is a unique approach by Goodling in reaching the voters of the 19th Congressional District during the election campaign.

Parker Cunningham, WGFT station manager, told The Times today that "a live microphone will be attached to a studio telephone, and that the entire conversation with the congressman will be aired. The purpose of the plan is to answer questions voters may wish to ask Goodling, who served for 14 years in the state House of Representatives prior to his election to Congress."

COUPLE LICENSED

A marriage license was issued Tuesday at the court house to Richard Plantz Weaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Weaver, Gettysburg R. 6, and Connie Minerva Hartman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hartman, Wade Ave.

Choose 8 Calves For Farm Show

Calves owned by eight Adams County youths were selected Tuesday afternoon at the York Livestock Center, near Thomasville, to represent the county in the state Farm Show 4-H baby beef competition at Harrisburg in January.

Ben Morgan, livestock specialist from Pennsylvania State University, made the selection from 30 calves shown by county 4-H Baby Beef Club members. The 22 other calves today are entered in the annual York-Adams baby beef show and sale. The show was held this morning with the sale starting at about 3:30 this afternoon.

The owners of the steers selected for state competition were David, Donald and Elizabeth Lott, all children of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Lott, Gettysburg R. 4; David Bair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theron Bair, Littlestown R. 2; Stephen Baughman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Slagbaugh, Biglerville R. 2; Ronald Funt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Funt, Biglerville R. 1; and Philip and Steven Murren, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Murren, Hanover R. 4.

SUFFERS STROKE

Leo Allard, 72, York, formerly of Gettysburg, suffered a paralytic stroke Tuesday and is a patient in the York Hospital. Mr. Allard was a former foreman at the Gettysburg furniture factory and was active in veterans' affairs. In recent years, he resided in York.

He was one of 500 men at 81 per cent who were discharged from the military service in the York area in 1945. He is now 72, and lives at 111 S. 1st St., York, Pa. (Continued On Page 3)

A $1,500 student scholarship fund in the name of Harry F. Baughman was established by the West Virginia Synod of the Lutheran Church in America Tuesday evening at a testimonial dinner in the Hotel Gettysburg honoring the retiring president of the Lutheran Theological Seminary. The presentation was made by the Rev. Donald D. Anderson, president of the synod, in the presence of 135 friends and associates of Dr. Baughman.

Other gifts presented to Dr. and Mrs. Baughman by faculty and friends were a bound copy of letters received by Dr. Baughman upon his retirement and a color television set. The presentations were made by Robert T. Menges, Menges Mills, Pa., vice president of the board of directors.

In his greetings from the Lutheran Church in America, the Rev. Dr. George F. Harkins, a graduate of the seminary, said, "Dr. Baughman leaves a string of admirers and students who have benefitted greatly and who have benefited greatly and who cause of him. He has served the Lutheran church and community magnificently."

MANY GREETINGS

Greetings came from 13 church and community groups, including those delivered for the community by Judge W. C. Sheely, of the Adams-Fulton courts, who said Dr. Baughman was responsible for a "strong relationship" between the seminary and the town and community. "We have always been able to count on him for support."

Greetings from the synods were delivered by Rev. Dr. Dwight F. Putman, president of the Central Pennsylvania Synod; the Rev. Dr. J. Frank Fife, president of the Maryland Synod; the Rev. Dr. William C. Hankey, president of the Pittsburgh Synod, and the Rev. Mr. Anderson. The Rev. Dr. Charles L. Taylor, executive secretary of the American Association of Theological Schools, said, "I bring the greetings of 123 seminaries of 30 denominations." The Rev. Dr. Conrad Bergendoff, executive secretary of the United Lutheran Church in America, said, "Dr. Baughman and I have lived through the most thrilling eras of the Lutheran Church."

"IN HIGH ESTEEM"

The Rev. Dr. Henry H. Bagger, president of the Mt. Airy Seminary, said, "Dr. Baughman is responsible for the strong relationship between the Gettysburg Seminary and the Mt. Airy Seminary. We hold him in high esteem."

Dean Charles H. Glaffelter, Gettysburg College, extended the sentiments of the college, and R. D. Reichard, president of the student body, brought greetings from the seminarians. The Rev. Dr. Paul R. Clouser, president, spoke for the board of directors.

President-elect Dr. Donald R. Heiges thanked Dr. Baughman for his help and guidance and said, "To follow in your footsteps is a great honor."

HOPE'S JOKES ON KENNEDYS THRILL QUEEN

LONDON (AP)—"We don't have titles in the United States," said Bob Hope Monday night, his eyes studiously avoiding the royal box at the Palladium.

A faint smile flickered over Queen Elizabeth's face.

"No, sir," Hope continued, "in America we have just two classes—the people and the Kennedys."

The queen glanced at her husband, Prince Philip, and smiled.

"And there are more Kennedys than people," Hope continued after the laughter subsided.

Elizabeth threw back her head and laughed out loud.

The occasion was the annual Royal Variety Performance which raised $126,000 for the Variety Artists Benevolent Fund.

The queen appeared just as amused when Hope said: "President Kennedy's from Massachusetts, you know. He's going to split it in two parts—high Mass and low Mass."

Critic Fergus Cushman commented in the daily sketch:

"Why was the queen given the opportunity to throw back her head and laugh happily at jokes about the Kennedy family?"

"Is there some hope here for the future of satire in our theaters?"

Jokes about the royal family are banned from the British stage. Recently the lord chamberlain, Britain's censor, banned satirical skits about the Kennedys from an American revue playing in London.

The evening was a sentimental triumph for 78-year-old Sophie Tucker, a longtime London favorite who starred in the first Royal Variety Performance in 1934 before Queen Elizabeth's grandparents, King George V and Queen Mary.

The audience gave her one of the loudest and longest ovations in the history of the annual vaudeville event. Tears streaked the veteran American entertainer's makeup as she acknowledged the cheers and applause and blew a kiss to the royal box.

"I was thrilled," Queen Elizabeth told Miss Tucker afterward. "You were wonderful."

'Erector Set' Sales Top $200 Million

NEW YORK (AP)—The re-building industry now has sales figures of around $200 million a year double the 1955 peak.

The industry, once the producer of quonset huts and pre-engineered farm buildings, tool sheds and warehouses, now produces what may be described as giant "erector set" kits that builders use for buildings such as bowling alleys, community recreation halls and auto showrooms.

Steelways, official publication of the American Iron and Steel Institute, says the new wide variety of pre-engineered parts allows a builder to combine the metal with masonry, glass or facade materials.

NEGRO'S DORM PEPPERED WITH FIRECRACKERS

By VAN SAYELL

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)—University of Mississippi students bombarded the dormitory of James H. Meredith with firecrackers into the wee hours today. It was the most serious incident since the bloody rioting when the 29-year-old Negro enrolled four weeks ago.

The Army alerted an extra platoon of white-helmeted military police but did not use them.

Student leaders, faculty members and Army officers attributed the explosive campus feeling to Mississippi's coming football game with Louisiana State.

No arrests were made, but the MPs chased students away from Baxter Hall, the ivy-coated dormitory where Meredith has a two-room apartment.

USE SLING SHOTS

About 200 students peppered the walls of Baxter Hall with cherry bombs—small firecrackers which make a tremendous noise. Some were hurled by sling shots.

Student affairs Dean L. L. Love continually appealed to students to disperse and by 2 a.m. the campus was quiet.

"They're taking their feelings out about the football game on Meredith," said one student leader.

The university's football team—undefeated this season—goes to Baton Rouge Saturday night to play LSU. The intense rivalry between the schools, both perennial national football powers, has made the contest a national classic in recent years.

Monday night's incidents started while Meredith was dining in the campus cafeteria. One cherry bomb was thrown into an MP jeep, scattering three soldiers.

A barrage of firecrackers continued and the soldiers and two federal marshals raced into the crowd with drawn night sticks. The students, jeering and yelling, retreated.

WGET-FM, 107.7 megacycles, is now broadcasting from 8 a.m. till midnight seven days a week.

Chinas." He held that "while at present it appears that Red China can be kept out of the United Nations, this does not appear to be a permanent proposition. There are more and more nations favoring admission of Red China." One possible solution that is being suggested, he held, is to admit both Red China and Nationalist China to the General Assembly and give the seat in the Security Council now held by Nationalist China to some other country, probably India.

INDIA ENTHUSIASTIC

Dr. Dunkelberger stated, "There is more enthusiasm for the United Nations in India than in the west. In addition to the United Nations' role as world empire, India has profited greatly from aid given by the World Health Organization, UNICEF and UNESCO." He outlined some of the work of the world organizations in India he observed during his recent visit there and added, "India in addition has an ulterior motive in its U.N. support. 'India looks upon itself as the leader of the neutralist block in the United Nations which is growing larger. She is already on the Trustee Council and the Economic Council and other leading groups of the United Nations and is hopeful of securing a post on the Security Council. She is courting the Africans, for India see herself as leader of the nonwhite countries, and while in India I saw a large number of African students who are receiving much help from

Dr. Bowen told of encountering a number of Russians who were members of the UNESCO services in various countries and held "they are all very capable." He added, "We should send only our best in the cultural exchange and other programs because the Russians are sending only their top men and women."

All of the weapons and a pocketknife were found lying on the floor of her bedroom beside her.

She had also been sexually assaulted by an intruder who apparently grabbed and choked her while struggling with her across the living room floor to the bedroom in the one-story ranch type house. There were bruises which indicated that she put up a struggle in her own defense before death overtook her.

tions of Our Ecumenical Responsibilities for Theological Education." He said the theological school must always be aware of the total scope of the lives of people and that it must never become an ingrown thing. It is only when its graduates are concerned with the totality of life that they can bring the gospel to our day effectively, the speaker asserted.

The symposium closed with a discussion of the ideas expressed by the speakers. The keynote of the discussion was that the church today "has a wonderful challenge in bringing the everlasting message of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the lives of men so that all men might come to be members of the Kingdom of our God" as one speaker put it.

It was emphasized that it is the "privilege" of the theological school to continue always to re-evaluate itself so that it might ever more effectively prepare men of high quality for this task.

BUILDER TO RETURN

The Sunday schedule will begin with Sunday School Rally Day at the York Springs Methodist Church and Mrs. Kenneth Barner will teach the children's department.

At a 3 p.m. service the Rev. H. L. Branner, assistant general secretary for administration of the National Council of Churches, now of Fairlawn, N. J. will be the speaker. THIRD BUILDING

The Idaville church, which is the oldest of the churches of the Mt. Holly Springs charge, has a history of more than 128 years. The exact date of its beginning is not known but there is reason to believe the work in that parish started in 1835 under the ministry of S. G. Jacobs and J. A. Jacobs. The congregation worshipped at first in the schoolhouse. By 1850 the first church was erected. It was a stone structure and was built during the pastorate of Daniel Kreamer and B. F. Noll. The land was bought from John B. and Mary A. Group and the original deed is in the hands of the trustees. The first building cost $1,600.

In 1896 during the pastorate of the Rev. W. N. Fulcomer, a frame church was built and it was used for 40 years. The next building program that led to the present brick church of Gothic design started in 1936. The Rev. Mr. Brinner drew the plans which were approved by the congregation in March, 1937, and by the conference four days later. Ground was broken on April 4 and the cornerstone laying took place June 20. The last service in the old church was held on Mother's Day, May 9, and the first service was held in the basement of the unfinished new structure September 5. The church was dedicated December 19, 1937, by Bishop John S. Stamm assisted by the Rev. Mr. Brinner. The church cost $7,000 with much labor donated.

Highlights of the church's life in the last quarter century in this church include: 1942, church debt liquidated and a painting of the ascension was placed back of the pulpit; 1944, purchased lot east of the church; 1950, celebrated 100th anniversary of the erection of the first church; 1952, sanctuary was redecorated; 1954, new oil heating system installed; 1958, electronic organ and new piano were installed; 1959, sanctuary and basement were redecorated.

CHURCH'S LEADERS

The congregation of 66 members is led by these officers: Rev. Mr. Barner, pastor; Wilbur Herman, lay leader; June Miller, church organist; Robert Snyers, treasurer; Charles Losch, vice chairman, church council; Lorrie Shultz, secretary, church council; Ella Murtorf, secretary, Evangelical Home Auxiliary; June Miller, president, Ladies' Aid; Mrs. Charles Losch, treasurer, Ladies' Aid; Rande Koonz, president, Youth Fellowship; James Wolford, treasurer, Youth Fellowship.

ary quartet of the Uriah EUB Church will provide the special music.

BUILDER TO RETURN

The Sunday schedule will begin with Sunday School Rally Day at the York Springs Methodist Church and Mrs. Kenneth Barner will teach the children's department.

At a 3 p.m. service the Rev. H. L. Brønner, assistant general secretary for administration of the National Council of Churches, now of Fairlawn, N. J. will be the speaker. He was pastor at Idaville from 1936 to 1939 and it was during his pastorate that the present church building was erected. William Wenger, Gardner R. 2, will give the special music.

The Rev. Mr. Brønner also will be the speaker for the final service at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening. Linda and Roberta Bream, of Gardner R. 2, will furnish the special music for that service. James Beam, of the Goodyear Lutheran Church, will be the organist for the last two services.

THIRD BUILDING

The Idaville church, which is the eldest of the churches of the Mt. Holly Springs charge, has a history of more than 123 years. The exact date of its beginning is not known but there is reason to believe the work in that parish started in 1835 under the ministry of S. G. Jacobs and J. A. Jacobs. The congregation worshipped at first in the schoolhouse. By 1850 the first church was erected. It was a stone structure and was built during the pastorate of Daniel Kreamer and B. F. Noll. The land was bought from John B. and Mary A. Group and the original deed is in the hands of the trustees. The first building cost $1,600.

In 1896 during the pastorate of the Rev. W. N. Fulcomer, a frame church was built and it was used for 40 years. The next building program that led to the present brick church of Gothic design started in 1936. The Rev. Mr. Brønner drew the plans which were approved by the congregation in March, 1937, and by the conference four days later. Ground was broken on April 4 and the cornerstone laying took place June 20. The last service in the old church was held on Mother's Day, May 9, and the first service was held in the basement of the unfinished new structure September 5. The church was dedicated December 19, 1937, by Bishop John S. Stamm assisted by the Rev. Mr. Brønner. The church cost $7,000 with much labor donated.

Highlights of the church's life in the last quarter century in this church include: 1942, church debt liquidated and a painting of the ascension was placed back of the pulpit; 1944, purchased lot east of the church; 1950, celebrated 100th anniversary of the erection of the first church; 1952, sanctuary was redecorated; 1954, new oil heating system installed; 1958, electronic organ and new piano were installed; 1959, sanctuary and basement were redecorated.

Mr. Barner, pastor; Wilbur Herman, lay leader; June Miller, church organist; Robert Smyers, treasurer; Charles Losch, vice chairman, church council; Lorrie Shultz, secretary, church council; Ella Murtorff, secretary, Evangelical Home Auxiliary; June Miller, president, Ladies' Aid; Mrs. Charles Losch, treasurer, Ladies' Aid; Rande Koonz, president, Youth Fellowship; James Wolford, treasurer, Youth Fellowship.

The body of the attractive mother of two was found last Wednesday afternoon about 4 o'clock by her two daughters upon their return from school. All of the weapons and a pocketknife were found lying on the floor of her bedroom beside her.

She had also been sexually assaulted by an intruder who apparently grabbed and choked her while struggling with her across the living room floor to the bedroom in the one-story ranch type house. There were bruises which indicated that she put up a struggle in her own defense before death overtook her.

tions of Our Ecumenical Responsibilities for Theological Education." He said the theological school must always be aware of the total scope of the lives of people and that it must never become an ingrown thing. It is only when its graduates are concerned with the totality of life that they can bring the gospel to our day effectively, the speaker asserted.

The symposium closed with a discussion of the ideas expressed by the speakers. The keynote of the discussion was that the church today "has a wonderful challenge in bringing the everlasting message of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the lives of men so that all men might come to be members of the Kingdom of our God" as one speaker put it.

It was emphasized that it is the "privilege" of the theological school to continue always to re-evaluate itself so that it might ever more effectively prepare men of high quality for this task.

Three cars were reported involved in a collision Tuesday afternoon at 12:45 o'clock on West St. Police said Edwin L. Walter, 40, Gettysburg R. 3, was driving east out of the Gettysburg Shopping Center parking lot onto West St.

Charles J. Hartbauer, 22, Pittsburg, a student at the seminary, was driving south. When Hartbauer braked because of the emerging Walter car, Hartbauer's vehicle skidded on the wet highway into a parked station wagon owned by E. G. Hess, 3 West St. Police estimated damage at $75 each to the Hess and Hartbauer vehicles. The Walter car was not involved in the collision.

They were greatly impressed by poultry, beef and crops along the eastern seaboard, and were especially interested in seeing the fruit farms of Senator Harry F. Byrd in Virginia. The group included one fruit farmer.

More than half of the group had visited American farms before. "Those of us who have been here before are always impressed by the hospitality and warm receptions we receive from our American counterparts," he said. "We were very warmly received by battlefield officials who conducted us on the tour this morning."

TRADING MODERATE

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market clung to a slim upside edge in moderate trading early this afternoon as gains of an initial rally were reduced.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .3 at 218.1, with industrials up .6, rails up .2, and utilities off .1. Steels and motors were the pacemakers in early trading as key stocks throughout the list posted gains of fractions to a point or so. Many of these gains were pared as trading slowed.

Ross Ransom Bill Found: Discovery of a ransom note intensified the search for Charles S. Ross and his abductors today and let investigators to believe the kidnapping was the work of a Chicago gang. Federal agents focused their nationwide search on the Chicago area when Mrs. Clara Ludwig, 41, a railroad freight office clerk, found she possessed a $10 bill which was part of the $50,000 ransom. It was believed the first tangible evidence that the ransom money was in circulation. Investigators expressed confidence other notes would turn up to provide additional information that would lead them to the kidnaper's hideout.

Freedom Twp. P.T.A. Planned: Patrons, teachers and friends of the three public schools in Freedom township met Thursday evening in Moritz's school to take action toward the formation of a Parent-Teacher organization in the township. Today's Talk

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

It has always been a mystery to me why there are so many people who are more concerned about other people's business, their life actions, and thought, than they are about their own.

The business of such folks seems to be given over to picking flaws, hunting out the mistakes and blunders of others, and then acting as their advertising agent!

They seem to know all about the inside workings of other people's hearts, apparently ignoring entirely their own possibility to error and wrong.

And so these inspired saints spend their time criticizing the acts of others. He ought to give more money to the church or to charity; he is too mean to his wife; he neglects his business; he plays too much golf — or plays it too poorly! Thus the judges of others ponder.

Such people never for a minute would believe that the very ones they tear so cruelly apart in such times of glee may in fact be earth's angels walking about doing their tasks, bravely and uncompromisingly — giving silently and honestly, here and there, and seeking no credit, asking no reward of inward happiness over having performed to make others happier.

I have never met anyone on this earth wise or perfect enough to judge another. Other people's business is NOT ours. The real man or woman doesn't exist who considers that anything he or she has ever done has been done well enough.

And so we must struggle on — doing our best, acting as bravely as we know — and getting on as well as we can, in spite of those who think they know our lives better than we know them ourselves.

God knows that each of us is all too imperfect, though created in His image. The message of His own Messenger was that no one should judge another — that he, in turn, might not be judged.

What a job each of us has to perform. We are seldom in a position to criticize others, knowing how imperfectly we perform — and how prone to stumble and fall.

We never know how broken the other fellow's heart may be or how burdened his back!

Orderly Celebration: About 150 youthful celebrators marched over the main streets of the town Friday evening, led by the Blue and Gray band, in the annual Halloween parade. Borough police said they received no reports of property being damaged by pranksters.

Mailman Retires: The last of the nine original rural mail carriers out of the Gettysburg post office retired from the postal service today with the assignment of Javens W. Plank, York Street, to route No. 3, succeeding Samuel D. Weikert, 230 Steinwehr Ave. Beginning his duties as a rural carrier out of this office May 1, 1960, Weikert was one of the nine men who instituted daily mail delivery service to the rural residents of this section of the county 37 years ago. President Chiang Kai-shek Celebrates 75th Birthday; Still Expects To "Return"

PRESIDENT CHIANG

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—President Chiang Kai-shek is celebrating his 75th birthday today in good health and still voicing confidence his Chinese Nationalists will recover mainland China in his lifetime.

This birthday is his 15th in Formosa since he quit the mainland Dec. 10, 1949.

Chiang seems alert as ever, his eyes still as penetrating, his power of concentration unweakened.

GENIAL HOST
He is strict on state business, but a genial, readily smiling host on social occasions.

He unbends with only a few people: his elder son, Gen. Chiang Ching-kuo; his secretary-general, one-time Premier Chang Chun, who has been associated with the generalissimo since they were military cadets in Japan; and Vice President Premier Chen Cheng, a fellow native of the mainland province of Chekiang, who has served under him since 1924.

Since his last birthday Chiang has varied some of the patterns of his daily life.

WORKS AT HOME
He works mostly at his suburban home instead of at presidential headquarters in downtown Taipei.

He attends fewer routine military, political and economic conferences. He skips most meetings of the powerful standing committee of the Kuomintang, his ruling party.

The change in his pattern of work does not mean Chiang is idling his time away, for his routine would tax many a younger man. He is delegating more work to Chen Cheng, his political heir-apparent, and other ministers, while concentrating on matters of top importance.

HEALTH IS DUTY

Chiang also wants to conserve his health. He regards this as a duty necessary for realizing his government's supreme goal — recovery of the mainland. Aides say Chiang has had no recurrence of the bladder trouble for which he underwent an operation at the end of April.

Chiang regards the Chinese Communists as betrayers of the 1911 revolution which ended more than 46 centuries of monarchical rule in China. His long-standing policy toward them is: a fight to the finish, no negotiations and no compromise.

estimated to have covered nearly 260,000 miles in his years of service. Until 1923 Weikert used horses to take him over his daily delivery route. In that year he changed to an automobile and was using his fourth vehicle when he retired. The first nine rural carriers follow in the order of their route numbers: Charles Pfeiffer, Weikert, Maurice McCullough, Prof. J. Louis Sowers, Elmer E. Hutchison, Harry Fleming, Hugh M. McIlhenny, J. W. Dickson and John H. Eckert, who later became postmaster at the local office. Plank, the new carrier, won his position through a competitive examination with more than 30 contestants. The job pays a flat salary of $1,800 with additional allowances for mileage. When Weikert started, the salary was $400 a year.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—The absence of public gloating by the Kennedy administration over Premier Khrushchev's retreat on Cuba is understandable. There could be worse than Khrushchev.

There are also two other good reasons for something less than wild rejoicing: Khrushchev still has to make good on his promise to pull his missiles out of Cuba; and the trouble with Fidel Castro hasn't been settled at all.

If right now there is Kremlin conflict over the Soviet blunder and embarrassment in Cuba, open glee by American officials might be enough to tip the scales in favor of Khrushchev's tougher line opponents and thus wreck him.

Over the years he has made noise, been a pain in the neck, and often been dangerous. But because he was more human and flexible than Stalin, he was an improvement on the old tyrant. For example: When Stalin got the notion to drive the Allies out of Berlin, he blockaded the city. This eventually failed, but it could have meant war. Khrushchev wants to seal off Berlin, too, but he has stalled for four years in trying it.

If Khrushchev should lose out now in a power struggle because of his backdown in Cuba, it seems certain his successor would be a hard-nosed Communist more like Stalin than Khrushchev.

It was sheer clumsiness for the Soviet Union to put missiles in Cuba and not be prepared for something more impressive than a complete cave-in if the United States forced a showdown, as it did.

That there is conflict in the Kremlin over this blunder seems likely. Obvious confusion and indecision showed up in the contradictory messages Khrushchev sent President Kennedy before finally giving in.

Just because an internal Soviet leadership struggle may be going on now, Khrushchev's promise to take his missiles back home can't be accepted as fact until he actually does it. This is sufficient reason for the Kennedy administration to keep its fingers crossed until the missiles are gone.

Khrushchev has handled Castro in all this as if he were a nobody. Yet, just because the Soviet Union has been his main source of supplies and his only real hope of survival, Castro can hardly afford a break with Khrushchev.

ALWAYS A MENACE

The Russian made no promises to keep Castro quiet. And Castro hasn't been. So long as he bosses Cuba he will be a menace to the rest of the Latin American countries through the internal trouble he can create for them.

While Kennedy promised—if the missiles were withdrawn—that the United States would not invade Cuba, this did not say this country and other American republics would not work for his downfall. Their problem is how, without a direct American invasion. Yet, they can't sit idly by while Castro, through his agents and local Communists, tries to wreck one Latin American country after another.

Since Castro couldn't survive without Soviet supplies—for instance, oil—then any subversion he attempts against his neighbors must be considered Soviet subversion as much as it is Castro's.

Therefore the withdrawal of the Soviet missiles, instead of being the end of a chapter, was like a printer's error in a story only partly written and far from finished.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

UNDEREYE PUFFS. A lovely asks: What can be done to reduce puffiness under the eyes? A recent medical check-up shows that I am in good health. I get sufficient sleep. Yet the condition persists.

The answer: The incidence of under-eye puffiness, without apparent cause, seems to be on the increase. No certain control has yet appeared.

Many women find temporary relief in the application of hot and cold water compresses. For good results, you first apply comfortably hot water to the puffy areas.

As a compress cools, repeat it. Continue for two minutes. Then switch to cold water for three minutes.

The combination of temperatures increases circulation and drains away swelling. The full effect does not set in until 10 minutes or so has passed after a treatment.

Another effective measure is a simple exercise routine. You first circle the eyes with cream, preferably eye cream. You next close the eyes tightly, count three, and then relax. The harder you squeeze the eyes together, the better the immediate and long-term outcome.

The tensing and relaxing movement pares down puffiness right away. It also works to strengthen the muscles around the eyes. And strong muscles help to contain puffiness.

Never fear, the routine will not induce wrinkles. Habitual squinting and dry skin are the cause of lines. If you perform the exercise precisely as given 10 to 20 times a day, you may prevent a few lines while reducing those

"SAVE MINORS" PLAN IS READY FOR APPROVAL

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball's "save-the-minors" program — expected to cost in the neighborhood of a million dollars — has been solidly outlined and will be presented for approval to the major and minor leagues at their meetings next month.

Charles Segar, secretary-treasurer of organized baseball, made the announcement Tuesday concerning the program that carries out the major leagues' commitment made last May to underwrite at least 100 minor league clubs for the 1963 season.

Segar released an outline of the program presented by John L. Brearley, chairman of a joint major and minor league committee which had worked on the problem. Segar said he was optimistic that "the minors and majors both will adopt this program" at the Nov. 26-Dec. 1 meeting.

TO RECLASSIFY

The player development contract assumes that the minors will go through a revolutionary reclassification program, according to plan, that would list all minor leagues under Triple A, Double A and A headings for 1963.

Under this plan, which must be passed at the minor league meeting scheduled for Rochester, N.Y., in November, the Pacific Coast, International and American Association would retain their Triple A classification, while the Double A Texas and Mexican plus the A leagues (Eastern and South Atlantic) would be in Double A. The others — B, C and D leagues — all would be Class A.

The new contract then would be a standard working agreement of financial aid to the minors, and would substitute for the fixed cash payments previously made to the minors. That came out of the major's player development fund and approximated $550,000 a year.

POINTS OF PACT

Under the new arrangement, the major league club would pay the salaries of the manager and the coaches and would provide players and reimburse the minor league team for some or all of the player salaries. The majors also would pay spring training and certain traveling expenses.

In return, the majors would have the right to select minor league player contracts Dec. 15. Players owned outright by the minor league club could be bought by the major league team for a fee between $5,000 and $20,000 — before the player could be offered to any other club.

WILDCATS HAVE 2 GOOD RECORDS

NEW YORK (AP) — Unbeaten Northwestern, the nation's No. 1 college football team in this week's Associated Press poll, has some impressive statistical credentials in justifying the ranking.

NCAA Service Bureau figures revealed today that the Wildcats, one of the eight remaining undefeated major schools, have the best passing team as well as the highest scoring outfit.

Sparked by sophomore passer Tom Myers, Northwestern has averaged 219.4 yards per game in the air for five games, completing 60 passes in 130 attempts for a .615 percentage. The Wildcats have scored 169 points for a 33.8 average.

Oregon is the total offense leader, averaging 413.3 yards on the ground and in the air for six games. Michigan State has been the most effective rushing team, grinding out an average of 338.0 yards running.

MARYLAND HAS 2 GOOD BACKS

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Once-beaten Maryland has won four straight Atlantic Coast Conference games and in the process come up with two of the finest backs in college football.

Junior quarterback Dick Shiner, a 6-foot, 195-pounder from Lebanon, Pa., and senior halfback Tom Brown, a 5-foot-10 1/2-pounder from Silver Spring, Md., have played key roles in the Terps' surge to the top.

The Associated Press All-America Board serving the Atlantic Coast-Southern Conference area, places both men near the top of the section's best backs.

Writes Steve Guback, board member from the Washington, D. C. Star: "Whether Coach Tom Nugent uses the 'I' or the 'T' formation, Shiner is still IT. He's broken a hushel of Maryland records already, completed about 70 per cent of his passes and is rugged enough to make the quarterback sneak a power play. There may not be a more accurate short passer around."

Shiner has hit 37 of 131 passes for five touchdowns and 1,034 yards. He tops the nation's major teams in completions.

BAKER FIRED BY EAGLES FOR LOAFING

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The slumping Philadelphia Eagles have fired 272-pound defensive end John Baker, charging him with not giving maximum effort.

The Eagles Tuesday placed Baker on waivers and speculation arose that the Pittsburgh Steelers might claim the 6-6 end. If another NFL club does not claim him for the $100 waiver price, he will be a free agent.

Baker was not immediately available for comment. When a newsman phoned Baker's hotel and asked for him, his roommate, halfback Tim Brown, said he was en route to Pittsburgh to join Daddy Lipscomb, the Steelers' big tackle.

6 LOSSES, ONE WIN
"If we are going to lose, we're certainly not going to lose with anybody on the squad who's not giving his best effort," said Skorich. "And we're not going to keep anybody else who is guilty of a lack of effort." Skorich said his decision to dump Baker was based on his performances "over the past few games."

Baker played so poorly in last Sunday's 31-21 loss to Minnesota, said Skorich, that the coach felt the Eagles were playing with 10 men. It was the Eagles' sixth loss against only one victory.

"He (Baker) had many opportunities when he could have hit the quarterback, but he didn't," said Skorich. The coach referred to Fran Tarkenton who beat the Eagles with his running on roll-outs and passing.

The Eagles acquired Baker from the Los Angeles Rams last year in a trade for linebacker Bob Pellegrini who later was traded to Washington.

LOMBARDI IS BEATEN BUT BULLETS WIN

A wrong turn on the 4.7-mile cross-country course of Delaware Valley at Doylestown may have cost Jim Lombardi, Gettysburg College ace, a perfect record this season.

Lombardi, who had won six straight races previously, was forced to accept fourth place as the Bullets annexed their sixth victory in seven starts with a 26-31 triumph Tuesday.

The Bullets will meet Susquehanna on the Gettysburg Country Club course Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Results of Tuesday's meet:
Lou Coppens, Delaware Valley, 23:21; Ed Salmon, Gettysburg, 23:35; Ralph Murphy, DV, 23:37; Lombardi, G, 24:16; Jerry Staub, G, 24:49; Pete Herslow, G, 25:07; Glenn Cookson, DV, 25:09; Dave Scovell, DV, 25:20; Bob Loomis, G, 25:29; Connie Fisher, DV, 26:59.

Dick Tiger Named Fighter Of Month

NEW YORK (AP) — Dick Tiger of Nigeria, newly crowned middleweight champion of the World Boxing Association, today was named "Fighter of the Month" by Ring Magazine.

Ring, however, rates Paul Pender, of Brookline, Mass., as the middleweight champ, placing Tiger in the No. 1 contender position, followed by Gene Fullmer, the West Jordan, Utah, battler dethroned by Tiger.

There were no changes in the heavyweight division, ruled by Sonny Liston, but Doug Jones advanced one step to third in the light heavy class following Eddie Cotton's defeat by Mauro Mina of Peru, the No. 2 contender to Harold Johnson.

Simmons Delivers His First Shutout

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Veteran goalie Don Simmons may hold the key to the fortunes of the Rochester Americans in the American Hockey League's Western Division race this season.

The 31-year-old goalie, who formerly saw service with the Boston Bruins and the Toronto Maple Leafs in the National League was at his best Tuesday night. He posted his first shutout, handling 35 shots flawlessly as the Americans blanked the Baltimore Clippers 5-0 in the only game scheduled.

Stan Smrke and Gerry Ehman powered Rochester with a pair of goals apiece. Dick Gamble also scored for the Americans in the third stanza.

The victory boosted Rochester to within two points of unbeaten Buffalo, the Western Division leader.

MISSISSIPPI REBELS ARE AP FAVORITES

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Most football addicts have found the Saturday nights — of various types — but none of those nights will compare with the ruggedness of this weekend's Mississippi invasion of Louisiana State University.

In recent years Mississippi's Rebels generally have found the LSU Tigers more than they could handle. But this time the situation will be reversed with Glynn Griffing's passes dominating over Jerry Stovall's over-all play.

That's the big pick in this week's college football selections. Last week the figures were 42 correct, 10 wrong for an .808 average.

Other picks:
Northwestern over Indiana: Tom Myers, Northwestern's brilliant sophomore passer, has completed two-thirds of his flips and has averaged two aerial touchdowns a game.

Alabama over Mississippi State: The Crimson Tide's defense is stingy.

Southern California over Washington: The home field gives the Trojans a slight edge.

Texas over Southern Methodist: The Texas Longhorns work out their frustration of last week's tie with Rice at the expense of the Mustangs.

Michigan State over Minnesota: Only one team has been able to score on Minnesota this season but the Spartans love that kind of a challenge.

FAVORS PENN STATE
Arkansas over Texas A&M: Billy Moore is the reason.

Auburn over Florida: The re-modeled Auburn machine in perfect working order.

Missouri over Nebraska: Both are unbeaten but the Cornhusker defense not on a par with the Tigers'.

Ohio State over Iowa: The Hawkeye attack consists primarily of pass, and the Ohioans have many anti-aerial guns.

Penn State over Maryland: Few teams have two such good halfbacks as Penn State's Roger Kochman and Al Gursky.

Georgia Tech over Duke: Tech followers can't decide which of their two tackles, Dave Watson or Rufus Guthrie, should be the No. 1 All-America candidate.

WILDCATS' TACKLE NAMED TOP LINEMAN

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Joe Szezechko, Northwestern's 235-pound sophomore tackle, was named the college football lineman of the week by The Associated Press today.

It was Big Joe's sparkling play up front that played a major role in Northwestern's 35-6 victory over Notre Dame last week, a triumph that lifted the Wildcats into the No. 1 national ranking in this week's AP poll.

Szezechko's jarring tackle of Ed Rutkowski on the first running play of the game made the Notre Dame back fumble. Larry Benz recovered it, Northwestern on the Irish 29 — and eight plays later the Wildcats had their first touchdown.

3 OTHERS HIGH
Under Northwestern's linemen rating system, Big Joe was tops. He was given 79 per cent on his offensive assignments on running plays and 84 per cent on his blocking for passes.

High up in the voting by sports writers and broadcasters were Frank Patitucci, Stanford end; Ron Snider, Oregon tackle; and Billy Joe Armstrong, Ohio State center.

Patitucci, a 213-pound junior, started Stanford on the way to

Sleichter Leads In PGA Tourney

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP) — Dick Sleichter of Severna Park, Md., shot a three-under-par 68 here Tuesday to take a two-stroke lead at the halfway point of the 36-hole Middle Atlantic PGA Golf Tournament.

Sleichter, 44, was one-under-par at the nine-hole turn and sealed his lead by carding birdies on the last three holes at the Cascades course.

Trailing the Maryland pro were a pair of veteran Virginia professionals, Ansel Snow, of Charlottesville, and Jack Isaacs, of Langley Air Force Base. Each carded a one-under-par 70.

Sleichter was formerly the pro at the Gettysburg Country Club.

RED AUERBACH TANGLES WITH ST. LOUIS FANS

ST. LOUIS (AP) — This is a new National Basketball Association season but an old story was repeated Tuesday night when Boston Celtic Coach Red Auerbach, threatened and taunted by St. Louis Hawk fans, blew a fuse and charged into the crowd.

The fiery Auerbach, who often before has warred with the St. Louis partisans, was leaving the floor after being automatically ejected following his second technical foul in the 98-97 St. Louis victory.

Cries of "you lousy bum," profanity and threats followed Red along the court and, unable to stand it any longer, he surged into the crowd. He was followed by most of the Celtics.

"LIKE LIONS' DEN"
He and the Celtics claimed no blows were struck but he wound up with a sprained and cut left thumb, a skinned right knee and dust-stained trousers.

Auerbach said he fell over a chair.

He told The Associated Press: "It was like walking through a lion's den. Why should you have to take things like this?" Still fuming, he continued, "All I know is when we play with him (Referee Sid Borgia) we don't shoot the fouls. (Bob) Pettit shot as many fouls as our whole team."

HAD A POINT
He had a point. Pettit made more free throws than the entire Boston team — 18 to 15.

The crowd around Auerbach broke up quickly when the bulky Boston players rushed up and police and ushers then restored complete order.

In the other NBA game scheduled Tuesday, San Francisco came from behind a 88-85 score in the last quarter to beat New York 125-106 at the University of San Francisco gym.

Wilt Chamberlain, who holds virtually all the league's scoring records, crossed the 10,000-point milestone in his NBA career. He scored 59 points on 24 field goals and 11 fouls to up his NBA total to 10,033.

His upset 17-7 victory over UCLA by grabbing a fumble and running 82 yards for a touchdown. His smashing in tactics made him a standout on defense.

"BEST ON SQUAD"
Snidow, a 235-pounder, made 11 tackles eight of them unassisted as Oregon tied Washington 21-21.

In addition his punting helped keep the Huskies backed up in their own territory. Two of his kicks went out of bounds inside the 5.

As for Armstrong, Woody Hayes, Ohio State coach, showered superlatives on his 189-pound, 5-foot-11 senior snapperbacker after the Buckeyes' 14-7 victory over Wisconsin.

"Billy Joe is the best all-around player on our squad," Hayes said. "He's the best I've had here in 12 years. He has been tops for four years in grades, attitude, behavior and playing ability."

The Dutch annexed New Guinea in 1922.

PHIL PARSONS KEEPS LEAD IN MAC RUSHING

The potent offense that has given the Bucknell Bisons a 5-0 Middle Atlantic Conference university division record has captured four of the six top spots in the league's individual statistics this week.

Quarterback Ron Giordano's passing arm and eye have increased his lead in both passing and total offense. The Collingswood, N.J., senior has completed 47 of 77 attempted aeriars for 663 yards and seven touchdowns to gain a wide margin over Lafayette's George in both categories.

With the understanding that it takes two to complete a pass, it's not surprising that Giordano's receivers rank high in the passing department. End Dick Tyrrell is in the lead with 17 catches for 242 yards, and three Bison teammates, Phil Morgan, Ren Clements and Mike Connolly, rank among the top five receivers. Connell also leads in punting with an average of 38.3 yards derived from 12 kicks for 459 yards.

GAINS 27-YARD:
Gettysburg's Phil Parsons, a Junior from Cherry Hill, N. J., retains his lead in rushing with 276 yards gained in 49 carries.

Rick Taylor of the Bullets is third with 147 yards in 52 tries. Delaware's Clint Ware still holds the league scoring honors with 30 points although the Blue Hens have been absent from MAC competition for the past three weeks.

Bucknell's Charlie Thomas, second high scorer with 24 points, didn't make the top ten in receiving but he has crossed enemy goal lines with three of the five passes he has snared.

Statistical leadership among teams continues to be divided principally between Delaware and Bucknell with both Temple and Lehigh sharing some of the spoils.

Absent from league competition for three weeks, Delaware still prevails in rushing offense, rushing defense and scoring.

Bucknell, with one of the strongest aerial games in the East, holds a wide margin in passing offense and this week for the first time edged past the Blue Hens in total offense.

MULE PUNTERS BEST
Lehigh and Temple share defensive honors in pass defense and defense, while Muhlenberg retains punting leadership.

The Blue Hens' ground game has rolled up an average of 271.7 yards per game, while containing the opposition for a merger 38.3 yards rushing. Bucknell's passing attack has clicked 61 times in 103 attempts for an average of 163.2 yards per game, and the Bisons have added almost as much on the ground for a total offense of 319.6 yards per game to Delaware's 314.3.

In scoring Bucknell has narrowed the Blue Hen lead, but Delaware still holds first position with 104 points tallied in three games for an average of 34.7.

Lehigh is tops in pass defense clamping down on their opponents for an average of only 56.0 yards per game, while in total defense the Temple Owls have rationed the opposition to a mere 124.7 yards per contest. Muhlenberg boasts the best kicking game with a team average to 36.3 yards per punt.

Krause and Busick were in Philadelphia in advance of the Navy-Notre Dame Game Saturday at Philadelphia Stadium.

Black Cat To Be Admission To Game

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Any one with a black cat will be admitted free Saturday when the University of Louisville football team tries for the 13th time to defeat Xavier of Cincinnati.

There also will be a can of cat food for each owner and a "kitty sitting service" operated by the school's veterinary medicine staff.

Louisville has lost its last 12 games with the Cincinnati school.

"SAVE MINORS" PLAN IS READY FOR APPROVAL

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball's "save-the-minors" program — expected to cost in the neighborhood of a million dollars — has been solidly outlined and will be presented for approval to the major and minor leagues at their meetings next month.

Charles Segar, secretary-treasurer of organized baseball, made the announcement Tuesday concerning the program that carries out the major leagues' commitment made last May to underwrite at least 100 minor league clubs for the 1963 season.

Segar released an outline of the program presented by John L. Brearley of Pittsburgh, chairman of a joint major and minor league committee which had worked on the problem. Segar said he was optimistic that "the minors and majors both will adopt this program" at the Nov. 26-Dec. 1 meeting.

TO RECLASSIFY
The player development contract assumes that the minors will go through a revolutionary reclassification program, according to plan, that would list all minor leagues under Triple A, Double A and A headings for 1963.

Under this plan, which must be passed at the minor league meeting scheduled for Rochester, N.Y., in November, the Pacific Coast, International and American Association would retain their Triple A classification, while the Double A Texas and Mexican plus the A leagues (Eastern and South Atlantic) would be in Double A. The others—B, C and D leagues—all would be Class A.

The new contract then would be a standard working agreement of financial aid to the minors, and would substitute for the fixed cash payments previously made to the minors. That came out of the major's player development fund and approximated $850,000 a year.

POINTS OF FACT
Under the new arrangement, the major league club would pay the salaries of the manager and the coaches and would provide players and reimburse the minor league team for some or all of the player salaries. The majors also would pay spring training and certain traveling expenses.
In return, the majors would have the right to select minor league player contracts Dec. 15. Players owned outright by the minor league club could be bought by the major league team for a fee between $5,000 and $20,000—before the player could be offered to any other club.

WILLIE DAVIS IS TOP SOPH

NEW YORK (AP) — Willie Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers, a disappointment in his rookie year had a sparkling second season that earned him 1962 National League Sophomore of the Year honors in the annual Associated Press poll.

The speedy center fielder collected 32 of the 107 votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers Association participating in the balloting. Outfielder Billy Williams of the Chicago Cubs, Rookie of the Year in 1961, was runner-up. He was named on 20 ballots.

Davis, 22, a southpaw swinger and fielder wound up with a .285 batting average after hovering around .300 most of the season. This was a vast improvement over the 1961 campaign when he hit only .254.

Displaying power as well as consistency at the plate, Davis had 171 hits and 21 homers, collected 85 runs batted in and scored 103 runs.

Blueford ended up in Arcata's residential area about 11 blocks from the campus.

WILDCATS HAVE 2 GOOD RECORDS

NEW YORK (AP) — Unbeaten Northwestern, the nation's No. 1 college football team in this week's Associated Press poll, has some impressive statistical credentials in justifying the ranking.

NCAA Service Bureau figures revealed today that the Wildcats, one of the eight remaining undefeated major schools, have the best passing team as well as the highest scoring outfit.

Sparked by sophomore passer Tom Myers, Northwestern has averaged 219.4 yards per game in the air for five games, completing 80 passes in 130 attempts for a .615 percentage. The Wildcats have scored 169 points for a 33.8 average.

Oregon is the total offense leader, averaging 413.3 yards on the ground and in the air for six games. Michigan State has been the most effective rushing team, grinding out an average of 338.0 yards running.

MARYLAND HAS 2 GOOD BACKS

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Once-beaten Maryland has won four straight Atlantic Coast Conference games and in the process come up with two of the finest backs in college football.

Junior quarterback Dick Shiner, a 6-foot, 195-pounder from Lebanon, Pa., and senior halfback Tom Brown, a 5-foot-185-pounder from Silver Spring, Md., have played key roles in the Terps' surge to the top.

His First Shutout

Veteran goalie Don Simmons may hold the key to the fortunes of the Rochester Americans in the American Hockey League's Western Division race this season.

The 31-year-old goalie, who formerly saw service with the Boston Bruins and the Toronto Maple Leafs in the National League was at his best Tuesday night, handling 35 shots flawlessly as the Americans blanked the Baltimore Clippers 5-0 in the only game scheduled.

Stan Smrke and Gerry Ehman powered Rochester with a pair of goals apiece. Dick Gamble also scored for the Amerks in the third stanza.

The victory boosted Rochester to within two points of unbeaten Buffalo, the Western Division leader.

MISSISSIPPI REBELS ARE AP FAVORITES

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Most football addicts have found the Saturday nights of various types "too" but none of those nights will compare with the ruggedness of this weekend's Mississippi invasion of Louisiana State University.

In recent years Mississippi's Rebels generally have found the LSU Tigers more than they could handle. But this time the situation will be reversed with Glynn Griffing's passes dominating over Jerry Stovall's over-all play.

That's the big pick in this week's college football selections. Last week the figures were 42 correct, 10 wrong for an .808 average.

Other picks:
Northwestern over Indiana; Tom Myers Northwestern's brilliant sophomore passer, has completed two-thirds of his flips and has averaged two aerial touchdowns a game.

Alabama over Mississippi State: The Crimson Tide's defense is stingy.
Southern California over Washington: The home field gives the Trojans a slight edge.

Texas over Southern Methodist: The Texas Longhorns work out their frustration of last week's tie with Rice at the expense of the Mustangs.

Michigan State over Minnesota: Only one team has been able to score on Minnesota this season but the Spartans love that kind of a challenge.

FAVORS PENN STATE
Arkansas over Texas A&M: Billy Moore is the reason.

Auburn over Florida: The re-modeled Auburn machine in perfect working order.
Missouri over Nebraska: Both are unbeaten but the Cornhusker defense not on a par with the Tigers.

Ohio State over Iowa: The Hawkeye attack consists primarily of pass- and the Ohioans have many anti-aerial guns.

Penn State over Maryland: Few teams have two such good halfbacks as Penn State's Roger Kochman and Al Gursky.

Georgia Tech over Duke: Tech followers can't decide which of their two tackles, Dave Watson or Rufus Guthrie, should be the No. 1 All-America candidate.

WILDCATS' TACKLE NAMED TOP LINEMAN

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Joe Szececko, Northwestern's 235-pound sophomore tackle, was named the college football lineman of the week by The Associated Press today.

It was Big Joe's sparkling play up front that played a major role in Northwestern's 35-6 victory over Notre Dame last week, a triumph that lifted the Wildcats into the No. 1 national ranking in this week's AP poll.

Szececko's jarring tackle of Ed Rutkowski on the first running play of the game made the Notre Dame back fumble. Larry Benz recovered for Northwestern on the Irish 29—and eight plays later the Wildcats had their first touchdown.

3 OTHERS HIGH

Under Northwestern's lineman rating system, Big Joe was tops. He was given 79 per cent on his offensive assignments on running plays and 84 per cent on his blocking for passes.

High up in the voting by sports writers and broadcasters were Frank Patitucci, Stanford end; Ron Snidow, Oregon tackle; and Billy Joe Armstrong, Ohio State center.

Patitucci, a 213-pound junior, started Stanford on the way to its upset 17-7 victory over UCLA by grabbing a fumble and running 82 yards for a touchdown. His smashing in tactics made him a standout on defense.

"BEST ON SQUAD"
Snidow, a 235-pounder, made 11 tackles eight of them unassisted as Oregon tied Washington 21-21. In addition his punting helped keep the Huskies backed up in their own territory. Two of his kicks went out of bounds inside the 5.

As for Armstrong, Woody Hayes, Ohio State coach, showered superlatives on his 189-pound, 5-foot-11 senior snapperbacker after the Buckeyes' 14-7 victory over Wisconsin.

"Billy Joe is the best all-around player on our squad," Hayes said. "He's the best I've had here in 12 years. He has been tops for four years in grades, attitude, behavior and playing ability."

Sleichter Leads In PGA Tourney

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP)—Dick Sleichter of Severna Park, Md., shot a three-under-par 68 here Tuesday to take a two-stroke lead at the halfway point of the 36-hole Middle Atlantic PGA Golf Tournament.

Sleichter, 44, was one-under-par at the nine-hole turn and sealed his lead by carding birdies on the last three holes at the Cascades course.

Trailing the Maryland pro were a pair of veteran Virginia professionals, Ansel Snow, of Charlottesville, and Jack Isaacs, of Langley Air Force Base. Each carried a one-under-par 70.

Sleichter was formerly the pro at the Gettysburg Country Club.

RED AUERBACH TANGLES WITH ST. LOUIS FANS

ST. LOUIS (AP)—This is a new National Basketball Association season but an old story was repeated Tuesday night when Boston Celtic Coach Red Auerbach, threatened and taunted by St. Louis Hawk fans, blew a fuse and charged into the crowd.

The fiery Auerbach, who often before has warred with the St. Louis partisans, was leaving the floor after being automatically ejected following his second technical foul in the 98-97 St. Louis victory.

Cries of "you lousy bum," profanity and threats followed Red along the court and, unable to stand it any longer, he surged into the crowd. He was followed by most of the Celtics.

"LIKE LIONS' DEN"
He and the Celtics claimed no blows were struck but he wound up with a sprained and cut left thumb, a skinned right knee and dust-stained trousers.

Auerbach said he fell over a chair.
He told The Associated Press: "It was like walking through a lion's den. Why should you have to take things like this?"

Still fuming, he continued, "All I know is when we play with him (Referee Ed Borgia) we don't shoot the fouls. (Bob) Pettit shot as many fouls as our whole team."

HAD A POINT
He had a point. Pettit made more free throws than the entire Boston team—18 to 15.

The crowd around Auerbach broke up quickly when the bulky Boston players rushed up and police and ushers then restored complete order.

In the other NBA game scheduled Tuesday, San Francisco came from behind a 88-85 score in the last quarter to beat New York 125-106 at the University of San Francisco gym.

Wilt Chamberlain, who holds virtually all the league's scoring records, crossed the 10,000-point milestone in his NBA career. He scored 59 points on 24 field goals and 11 fouls to up his NBA total to 10,033.

Lehigh is tops in pass defense clamping down on their opponents for an average of only 56.0 yards per game, while in total defense the Temple Owls have rationed the opposition to a mere 124.7 yards per contest. Muhlenberg boasts the best kicking game with a team average of 36.3 yards per punt.

National Athletic Unit Eyed By Irish
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Moose Krause, athletic director of Notre Dame, says his school would be interested in a national athletic conference if Army, Navy, and the Air Force among others came in.

But Capt. William Busirk, Navy athletic director who shared the same platform with Krause Tuesday, said "we would not be in favor of it."

Krause and Busirk were in Philadelphia in advance of the Navy-Notre Dame Game Saturday at Philadelphia Stadium.

Black Cat To Be Admission To Game

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Anyone with a black cat will be admitted free Saturday when the University of Louisville football team tries for the 13th time to defeat Xavier of Cincinnati.

There also will be a can of cat food for each owner and a "kitty sitting service" operated by the school's veterinary medicine staff.

"All we ask," said public relations director Les Wilson, "is that people pick up their cats when they leave."

Louisville has lost its last 12 games with the Cincinnati school.

BOBBY MINTER NEW MANAGER AT EDGEWOOD

Robert G. Minter, 26, of 31 W. Middle St., will become general manager of Edgewood Bowling Lane, south of here on the Emmitsburg Rd., Thursday, it was announced today. He succeeds Harold Kauffman.

Minter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Minter, E. Middle St., is a graduate of Gettysburg High School. During his service with the armed forces he was an assistant manager for one and one-half years of an alley at Findley, N.D.

During the past three years he served as manager of the Gettysburg College bowling lanes where he rolled a 300 game, first ever to be recorded in Adams County.

The first in a series of changes at Edgewood will be the immediate addition of new tournament pins.

It has also been announced that Edgewood Lanes chevrons will be awarded bowlers retroactive to the beginning of the fall season.

Minter is married to the former Barbara Slusser of Bonneville.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain dumped in 59 points to surpass the 10,000-point mark as San Francisco's Warriors dropped the New York Knickerbockers 125-106 Tuesday night in a National Basketball Association game.

Federal agents focused their nationwide search on the Chicago area when Mrs. Clara Ludwig, 41, a railroad freight office clerk, found she possessed a $10 bill which was part of the $50,000 ransom. It was believed the first tangible evidence that the ransom money was in circulation. Today's Talk

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

It has always been a mystery to me why there are so many people who are more concerned about other people's business, their life actions, and thought, than they are about their own.

The business of such folks seem to be given over to picking faults, hunting out the mistakes and blunders of others, and then acting as their advertising agent.

They seem to know all about the inside workings of other people's hearts, apparently knowing entirely their own possibility to error and wrong.

And so these inspired saints spend their time criticizing the acts of others. He ought to give more money to the church or to charity; he is too mean to his wife; he neglects his business; he plays too much golf — or plays it too poorly! Thus the judges of others ponder.

Such people never for a minute would believe that the very ones they tear so cruelly apart in such times of gloom may in fact be earth's angels walking about doing their tasks, bravely and uncomplainingly — giving silently and honestly, here and there, and seeking no credit, asking no reward of inward happiness over having performed to make others happier.

I have never met anyone on this earth wise or perfect enough to judge another. Other people's business is NOT ours. The real man or woman doesn't exist who considers that anything he or she has ever done has been done well enough.

And so we must struggle on — doing our best, acting as bravely as we know — and getting on as well as we can, in spite of those who think they know our lives better than we know them ourselves.

God knows that each of us is all too imperfect, though created in His image. The message of His own Messenger was that no one should judge another — that he in turn, might not be judged.

What a job each of us has to perform. We are seldom in a position to criticize others, knowing how imperfectly we perform — and how prone to stumble and fall.

We never know how broken the other fellow's heart may be or how burdened his back!

President Chiang Kai-shek Celebrates 75th Birthday; Still Expects To "Return"

PRESIDENT CHIANG

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—President Chiang Kai-shek is celebrating his 75th birthday today in good health and still voicing confidence his Chinese Nationalists will recover mainland China in his lifetime.

This birthday is his 15th in Formosa since he quit the mainland Dec. 10, 1949.

Chiang seems as alert as ever, his eyes still as penetrating, his power of concentration unweakened.

GENIAL HOST
He is strict on state business, but a genial, readily smiling host on social occasions.

He unbinds with only a few people: his elder son, Gen. Chiang Chung-kuo; his secretary-general, onetime Premier Chang Chun, who has been associated with the generalissimo since they were military cadets in Japan, and Vice President Premier Chen Cheng, a fellow native of the mainland province of Chekiang, who has served under him since 1924.

Since his last birthday Chiang has varied some of the patterns of his daily life.

WORKS AT HOME
He works mostly at his suburban home instead of at presidential headquarters in downtown Taipei.

He attends fewer routine military, political and economic conferences. He skips most meetings of the powerful standing committee of the Kuomintang, his ruling party.

The change in his pattern of work does not mean Chiang is idling his time away, for his routine would tax many a younger man. He is delegating more work to Chen Cheng, his political heir-apparent, and other ministers, while concentrating on matters of top importance.

HEALTH IS DUTY

Chiang also wants to conserve his health. He regards this as a duty necessary for realizing his government's supreme goal — recovery of the mainland. Aides say Chiang has had no recurrence of the bladder trouble for which he underwent an operation at the end of April.

Chiang regards the Chinese Communists as betrayers of the 1911 revolution which ended more than 46 centuries of monarchical rule in China. His long-standing policy toward them is: a fight to the finish, no negotiations and no compromise.

estimated to have covered nearly 260,000 miles in his years of service. Until 1923 Weikert used horses to take him over his daily delivery route. In that year he changed to an automobile and was using his fourth vehicle when he retired. The first nine rural carriers follow in the order of their route numbers: Charles Pfeiffer, Weikert, Maurice McCullough, Prof. J. Louis Sowers, Elmer E. Hutchison, Harry Fleming, Hugh M. McIlhenny, J. W. Dickson and John H. Eckert, who later became postmaster at the local office. Plank, the new carrier, won his position through a competitive examination with more than 30 contestants. The job pays a flat salary of $1,800 with additional allowances for mileage. When Weikert started, the salary was $400 a year.

CHIANG-KAI-SHEK

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—The absence of public gloating by the Kennedy administration over Premier Khrushchev's retreat on Cuba is understandable. There could be worse than Khrushchev.

There are also two other good reasons for something less than wild rejoicing: Khrushchev still has to make good on his promise to pull his missiles out of Cuba; and the trouble with Fidel Castro hasn't been settled at all.

If right now there is Kremlin conflict over the Soviet blunder and embarrassment in Cuba, open glee by American officials might be enough to tip the scales in favor of Khrushchev's tougher-line opponents and thus wreck him.

Over the years he has made use of a pain in the neck, and often been dangerous. But because he was more human and flexible than Stalin, he was an improvement on the old tyrant. For example: When Stalin got the notion to drive the Allies out of Berlin, he blockaded the city. This eventually failed, but it could have meant war. Khrushchev wants to seal off Berlin, too, but he has stalled for four years in trying it.

If Khrushchev should lose out, now in a power struggle because of his backdown in Cuba, it seems certain his successor would be a hard-nosed Communist more like Stalin than Khrushchev.

It was sheer clumsiness for the Soviet Union to put missiles in Cuba and not be prepared for something more impressive than a complete cave-in if the United States forced a showdown, as it did.

That there is conflict in the Kremlin over this blunder seems likely. Obvious confusion and indecision showed up in the contradictory messages Khrushchev sent President Kennedy before finally giving in.

Just because an internal Soviet leadership struggle may be going on now, Khrushchev's promise to take his missiles back home can't be accepted as fact until he actually does it. This is sufficient reason for the Kennedy administration to keep its fingers crossed until the missiles are gone.

Khrushchev has handled Castro in all this as if he were a nobody. Yet, just because the Soviet Union has been his main source of supplies and his only real hope of survival, Castro can hardly afford a break with Khrushchev.

ALWAYS A MENACE

The Russian made no promises to keep Castro quiet. And Castro hasn't been. So long as he bosses Cuba he will be a menace to the rest of the Latin American countries through the internal trouble he can create for them.

While Kennedy promised—if the missiles were withdrawn—that the United States would not invade Cuba, this did not say this country and other American republics would not work for his downfall. Their problem is how, without a direct American invasion. Yet, they can't sit idly by while Castro, through his agents and local Communists, tries to wreck one Latin American country after another.

Since Castro couldn't survive without Soviet supplies—for instance, oil—then any subversion he attempts against his neighbors must be considered Soviet subversion as much as it is Castro's.

Therefore the withdrawal of the Soviet missiles, instead of being the end of a chapter, was like a printer's error in a story only partly written and far from finished.

LIVING DEATH

To be remembered is to live;
To be forgotten is to die,
The man to whom no thought I give
Is just another passer-by.

The man whose grief I do not share,
Nor think about or wish to see,
Although alive to all who care,
Is in no sense alive to me.

A dead man feels no sense of pain,
Indifferent, unmoved, he lies,
For all our talk of loss and gain
Means naught the moment that he dies.

And so to cries I do not hear
Or hearing coldly pass them by,
Untouched by pity, hope or fear,
As dead as are the dead am I.

I live the while I can be stirred
In others' joys and griefs to share,
I die, and off has this occurred,
To all for which I've ceased to care.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

UNDEREYE PUFFS. A lovely asks: What can be done to reduce puffiness under the eyes? A recent medical check-up shows that I am in good health. I get sufficient sleep. Yet the condition persists.

The Answer: The incidence of under-eye puffiness, without apparent cause, seems to be on the increase. No certain control has yet appeared.

Many women find temporary relief in the application of hot and cold water compresses. For good results, you first apply comfortably hot water to the puffy areas.

As a compress cools, reheat it. Continue for two minutes. Then switch to cold water for three minutes.

The combination of temperatures increases circulation and drains away swelling. The full effect does not set in until 10 minutes or so has passed after a treatment.

Another effective measure is a simple exercise routine. You first circle the eyes with cream, preferably eye cream. You next close the eyes tightly, count three, and then relax. The harder you squeeze the eyes together, the better the immediate and long-term outcome.

The tensing and relaxing movement pares down puffiness right away. It also works to strengthen the muscles around the eyes. And strong muscles help to contain puffiness.

Never fear, the routine will not induce wrinkles. Habitual squinting and dry skin are the cause

CITE DANGER OF STANDING RED HAVEN IN CUBA

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three Senate Republicans warned Tuesday against any Soviet missile-removal agreement that might provide a permanent sanctuary for communism in Cuba.

The Republicans said they would oppose any U.S. guarantee that Fidel Castro's Cuban government would be protected from Western Hemisphere harassment.

In agreeing Sunday to pull his missile bases out of Cuba, Soviet Premier Khrushchev told President Kennedy in a message, "I regard with respect and trust your statement that no attack will be made on Cuba, that no invasion will take place, not only by the U.S.A. but also by other countries of the Western Hemisphere, as your message pointed out."

2-DAY SUSPENSION

Kennedy had messaged Khrushchev a day earlier that the United States would agree "to give assurances against an invasion of Cuba. I am confident that other nations of the Western Hemisphere would be prepared to do likewise."

Kennedy also told Khrushchev that the U.S. blockade of offensive arms shipments to Cuba would be lifted when arrangements had been worked out through the United Nations to insure the removal of the missile bases.

The White House announced Monday night that the blockade would be lifted for two days, starting today, during the Havana visit of acting U.N. Secretary General U. Thant.

WARY OF PACT

Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., who contended weeks ago that the Soviet arms buildup was offensive and not defensive as the Kennedy administration then maintained, said he is disturbed about the terms of possible settlement.

"We must be very wary about any pact which will tie our hands in preventing the spread of communism to other countries in the Caribbean," he said.

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., said in a separate interview he interprets the Cuban developments as "a victory over Khrushchev, but not over Castro."

Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., called on Kennedy to avoid any concession "which would have the effect of making Castro communism a permanent fixture in the Western Hemisphere."

He said that if the missile bases and other offensive weapons are removed, "such action would merely return us to the status quo that existed before the Soviet buildup began."

John V. Singer, brother of Isaac Singer, the sewing machine magnate, was shipwrecked on Padre Island, Texas, in 1847. He decided to take advantage of the abundant grass and shallow fresh-water wells and stay on the island to raise cattle.

Letter To The Editor

TO THE EDITOR OF
THE GETTYSBURG TIMES

Dear Sir:

If economy in government is desirable, Bill Scranton is desirable as the next governor of Pennsylvania.

If economy in government is not wanted, Richardson Dilworth is available. A Pennsylvania officeholder, speaking at a public meeting, recently declared, "Let's face it. Farmers just don't like to spend money." He was speaking for the new, unworkable school laws, which are designed to take control of our schools from the people and put it in the hands of bureaucrats and which cannot help but bring a vast increase in the tax load.

What he was trying to say was that farmers just don't believe in spending money they don't have — that they don't uphold extravagance. Supporting an extravagant state government, they feel, is like supporting an extravagant wife. It's fine for the wife and hard for the husband and generally ends in poverty for both of them.

Dilworth's record in Philadelphia was not one of economy, nor has he whispered one word in his campaign oratory in favor of it.

Scranton, on the other hand, has stressed it repeatedly in his speeches and promised to bring its practice into our state government, something, by the way, that has not been done for many a year.

The choice then is plain. Extravagance and augmented taxation or economy and a return to common-sense government. The choice is not a hard one for a thinking man to make.

We ask the citizens of rural Pennsylvania to join us in working for, voting for and supporting the candidacy of William W. Scranton and James E. Van Zandt.

POLITICS Republican

WEST CHESTER, Pa. (AP) — Rep. William W. Scranton, Republican candidate for governor, contended Tuesday his Democratic opponent, Richardson Dilworth, has been "stopped" in southwestern Pennsylvania.

"After a weekend checking on the situation in the state, I am more than ever encouraged," Scranton told newsmen.

"I am particularly pleased with the situation in southwestern Pennsylvania," Scranton added. That territory, including some of the state's most economically distressed regions, is traditionally Democratic.

"We have stopped Dilworth out in southwestern Pennsylvania," the GOP candidate asserted. He made the comments as he brought his campaign to Chester County, a Republican stronghold.

Scranton said that prior to his campaign trips to Washington, Fayette, Greene and Westmoreland counties last Friday and Saturday he thought the southwest "was the one spot where my opponent might possibly have the edge."

Crook and Eisenhart are sophomores at Bermudian High School, York Springs.

2 BERMUDIAN BOYS NAMED TO "ASSEMBLY"

Ronald Crook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crook, East Berlin R. 2, and James Eisenhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Eisenhart, East Berlin, and Sophomores at Bermudian Springs High School have been elected to the general assembly of the Pennsylvania state YMCA Hi-Y model legislature to be held in the capitol December 7 and 8.

The boys were elected when they represented their school's Senior Hi-Y Club at the South-central District prelegislative Hi-Y assembly held in the Dauphin County courthouse recently.

Crook will serve on the assembly's conservation committee. He is sponsoring a bill to improve the Appalachian Trail. State Senator George N. Wade is advisor to the committee.

EXPECT 250 BOYS

Eisenhart is a member of the assembly's education committee. Frank Cashman, director of federal and state affairs for the Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction, is the advisor.

CANCER CAUSE IS UNKNOWN, SURGEON SAYS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—No medical authority could be accurate in saying that smoking cigarettes gave a Pittsburgh carpenter lung cancer, says a Washington, D. C., chest surgeon.

Dr. Brian B. Blades, chairman of the department of surgery at the George Washington University Medical School, made the statement Monday in testimony at a cigarette-cancer trial in U. S. District Court.

Dr. Blades, who claims he smokes a pack of cigarettes daily, appeared as a defense witness for the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co. The firm is being sued by Otto Pritchard, 64, who says Chesterfield cigarettes gave him cancer in the lung.

"The cause of lung cancer is unknown," Dr. Blades said. "People that never smoke do develop lung cancer. The vast majority of smokers—96 to 97 per cent—do not develop lung cancer."

The surgeon said he has had approximately 5,000 lung cancer cases under his care or supervision. He said he could not give an opinion as to the cause of Pritchard's cancer.

Scott Will Have Opposition In '64

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Republican Congressman Carroll Kearns, defeated in this year's primary, says he expects to challenge incumbent Republican U. S. Sen. Hugh Scott and beat him in 1964.

Kearns, who lost to Dr. James D. Weaver of Erie in the 24th Congressional District primary after 16 years in Congress, announced his plans Monday. The district is comprised of Crawford, Mercer and Erie counties.

The 62-year-old Kearns said Scott set up "Weaver to defeat me." He added:

"I'm going to beat Scott. I'm going to take the next two years to do it, and I'm going to do a meticulous job."

JURY CONVICTS CHILD'S DAD

HANOVER, Va. (AP)—Carnival drifter Kenneth E. Dudley has been convicted of second degree murder for the bizarre starvation death of his 8-year-old daughter.

Witnesses quoted the 48-year-old defendant as saying he and his wife let the child, Carol Ann, starve to death to save on family expenses.

Dudley pleaded guilty Monday to second degree murder in Hanover County Circuit Court. Sentencing was postponed by Judge Leon M. Bazile until the court probation officer makes his report. Conviction carries a five to RACIAL CRISIS ISSUE IN ALA.

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Republican candidates hope to ride into office in traditionally Democratic Alabama by stressing the Kennedy administration role in the recent racial crisis in Mississippi.

In their most intense vote-getting campaign in many decades, GOP challengers are putting pressure on the Democrats all along the line from Congress to the county courthouse.

The overriding issue is the use of U. S. marshals and federal troops at the University of Mississippi, where the enrollment of Negro student James Meredith touched off violence.

Republican candidates have reminded the voters again and again that it was a Democratic administration in Washington which mobilized the federal forces.

Democratic nominees quickly

20-year prison term. In the courtroom was Dudley's wife, Irene, 45, who also faces a murder charge in the case. She is scheduled to go on trial next month.

The child's wasted body was found abandoned along U. S. 1 in Brunswick County in February 1961. Police investigation determined that she had died several days earlier at a truck stop in Hanover County.

Police said Carol Ann was the fifth Dudley child to die under similar circumstances. The bodies of the other children were abandoned as the couple drifted about the country looking for work in carnivals.

Sidney Poitier told a House committee in New York he may be the only Negro who makes a living in movies and "it's no joy to me to be a symbol."

Poitier was among several Negro actors testifying before the House Education and Labor Committee presided over by Negro Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr., D-N.Y.

After testifying that Negro actors "more talented than I never had a chance" on Broadway or in films, Poitier was asked by Powell if legislation to outlaw discrimination in unions would help. "Immeasurably," replied Poitier. "Then I'll do it," Powell said.

Princess Sophie of Greece, who returned from a round-the-world honeymoon with her Spanish husband, Prince Juan Carlos, last week, was operated on in Athens for appendicitis. The princess, who will be 24 Friday, was reported doing fine.

Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, says Washington gobbledygook is far from a dead language, and he is compiling an unofficial dictionary of sorts to prove his point.

For instance, he said in a letter to his constituents, the word, "de-

EUB Votes Merger With Methodists

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—A Reading, Pa., layman shouldered much of the responsibility today as the Evangelical United Brethren Church moved toward merger with the Methodists.

Delegates to the EUB's 40th General Conference voted 310 to 90 Monday to approve a merger resolution read by Elmer Yoder of Reading secretary of the denomination's Committee on Church Federation and Union.

The resolution authorized Yoder's committee to draw up with a Methodist Commission on Union a plan to put the merger into operation.

The resolution authorized all steps necessary to preparation of the plan and called for a report to the next regular session of the EUB General Conference in 1966.

Moves toward the union have been under study for more than four years by the two denominations.

MRS. EARTHART DIES

MEDFORD, Mass. (AP)—Amy Otis Earthart, 95, mother of aviator Amelia Earhart, died Monday in a nursing home.

Her daughter vanished with navigator Fred Noonan near Howland Island in the South Pacific during an around-the-world flight in 1937.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Richardson Dilworth, Democratic candidate for governor, pledged Tuesday if elected to seek legislation to require strip mine operators to restore their workings to full contour.

Dilworth said in a statement from his Philadelphia headquarters that his Republican opponent, William W. Scranton, has promised to consign the problems of strip mining control to a long study. He said Scranton made the promise at a secret meeting with a group of independent strip mine operators in Clearfield County in the past month.

"When I make a commitment," said Dilworth, "I do not hold secret meetings where I wish on the commitments as has my opponent."

Dilworth advocated a long-term program to return to its natural state land scarred by strip mining in the years before the present laws requiring mine operators to reclaim finished mining projects.

Dilworth further declared that the Republican platform plank on conservation was drafted by a man he described as "one of the general assembly's worst enemies of conservation, who consistently blocked every effort to improve Pennsylvania's conservation policies."

The man, who Dilworth did not mention by name, was later identified by Dilworth's aides as Rep. Edwin W. Tompkins, of Cameron County, assistant GOP floor leader in the 1961-62 sessions.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Sen. Joseph Clark, a Democrat seeking re-election, charged Tuesday that his Republican opponent is unaware of the problems facing cities and their suburbs.

Clark, in remarks prepared for a tour of a low-rent housing development in Philadelphia, said his opponent, Rep. James E. Van Zandt, has no interest in these problems.

Clark cited his six years seniority on the Housing subcommittee and said: "I took part in developing all of the housing, urban renewal, mass transportation, urban recreation, and juvenile delinquency measures that have been passed during that period."

Clark said he sponsored a bill to create a cabinet-level, department of urban affairs, but that Republican opposition killed it.

"I want to go back to the Senate to help pass it, so that we city dwellers can have a seat at the cabinet table such as the farmers have had for over a century," he said.

CITE DANGER OF

HAVEN IN CUBA

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Three Senate Republicans warned Tuesday against any Soviet missile removal agreement that might provide a permanent sanctuary for communism in Cuba.

The Republicans said they would oppose any U.S. guarantee that Fidel Castro's Cuban government would be protected from Western Hemisphere harassment.

In agreeing Sunday to pull his missile bases out of Cuba, Soviet Premier Khrushchev told President Kennedy in a message "I regard with respect and trust your statement that no attack will be made on Cuba that no invasion will take place, not only by the U.S.A. but also by other countries of the Western Hemisphere as your message pointed out."

2-DAY SUSPENSION

Kennedy had messaged Khrushchev a day earlier that the United States would agree "to give assurances against an invasion of Cuba. I am confident that other nations of the Western Hemisphere would be prepared to do likewise."

Kennedy also told Khrushchev that the U.S. blockade of offensive arms shipments to Cuba would be lifted when arrangements had been worked out through the United Nations to insure the removal of the missile bases.

The White House announced Monday night that the blockade would be lifted for two days, starting today, during the Havana visit of acting U.N. Secretary General U Thant.

WARY OF PACT

Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., who contended weeks ago that the Soviet arms buildup was offensive and not defensive as the Kennedy administration then maintained, said he is disturbed about the terms of possible settlement.

"We must be very wary about any pact which will tie our hands in preventing the spread of communism to other countries in the Caribbean," he said.

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., said in a separate interview he interprets the Cuban developments as "a victory over Khrushchev, but not over Castro."

Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., called on Kennedy to avoid any concession "which would have the effect of making Castro communism a permanent fixture in the Western Hemisphere."

He said that if the missile bases and other offensive weapons are removed, "such action would merely return us to the status quo that existed before the Soviet buildup began."

John V. Singer, brother of Isaac Singer, the sewing machine magnate, was shipwrecked on Padre Island, Texas, in 1847. He decided to take advantage of the abundant grass and shallow fresh-water wells and stay on the island to raise cattle.

Letter To The Editor

TO THE EDITOR OF
THE GETTYSBURG TIMES

Dear Sir,

If economy in government is desirable, Bill Scranton is desirable as the next governor of Pennsylvania.

If economy in government is not wanted, Richardson Dilworth is available. A Pennsylvania officeholder, speaking at a public meeting, recently declared, "Let's face it. Farmers just don't like to spend money." He was speaking for the new, unworkable school laws, which are designed to take control of our schools from the people and put it in the hands of bureaucrats and which cannot help but bring a vast increase in the tax load.

What he was trying to say was that farmers just don't believe in spending money they don't have — that they don't uphold extravagance. Supporting an extravagant state government, they feel, is like supporting an extravagant wife. It's fine for the wife and hard for the husband and generally ends in poverty for both of them.

Dilworth's record in Philadelphia was not one of economy nor has he whispered one word in his campaign oratory in favor of it.

Scranton on the other hand has stressed it repeatedly in his speeches and promised to bring its practice into our state government, something, by the way, that has not been done for many a year.

The choice then is plain. Extravagance and augmented taxation or economy and a return to common-sense government. The choice is not a hard one for a thinking man to make.

We ask the citizens of rural Pennsylvania to join us in working for voting for and supporting the candidacy of William W. Scranton and James E. Van Zandt.

WEST CHESTER Pa. (AP) — Rep. William W. Scranton Republican candidate for governor, contended Tuesday his Democratic opponent Richardson Dilworth has been "stopped" in southwestern Pennsylvania.

After a weekend checking on the situation in the state I am more than ever encouraged," Scranton told newsmen.

"I am particularly pleased with the situation in southwestern Pennsylvania," Scranton added. That territory including some of the state's most economically distressed regions is traditionally Democratic.

"We have stopped Dilworth out in southwestern Pennsylvania," the GOP candidate asserted. He made the comments as he brought his campaign to Chester County, a Republican stronghold.

Scranton said that prior to his campaign trips to Washington, Fayette Greene and Westmoreland counties last Friday and Saturday, he thought the southwest was the one spot where my opponent might possibly have the edge."

MANY NEGROES CAMPAIGN FOR PUBLIC OFFICE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Negroes are widening their quest for elective office in the United States. They stand to make gains in the Nov. 6 balloting.

Connecticut will elect a Negro to statewide office for the first time. Each major party nominated a Negro for state treasurer.

California will have its first Negro congressman in another all-Negro contest.

New York and Massachusetts have Negroes running for statewide office—New York for the first time.

Negroes, many of them incumbents, are running for local or district offices, such as assemblymen, in numerous states.

The Deep South state of Georgia is slated to have a Negro in its legislature for the first time in more than a half century.

Leroy Johnson, an Atlanta Negro attorney, defeated three white candidates for the Democratic nomination to the state Senate in a newly delineated district. He will run in the general election against T. M. Alexander, a Negro who was unopposed in the Republican primary.

In Connecticut, Gerald A. Lamb, a dental technician, is running for state treasurer on the Democratic ticket and William D. Graham, a lawyer, on the Republican. They were the first Negroes nominated for statewide office in Connecticut.

Lamb is a native of Elizabeth City, N.C., and Graham is from Montgomery, Ala.

Also in Connecticut, Wilfred X. Johnson, first Negro ever elected to the state legislature, is seeking his third two-year term as a state representative. He is a native of Dawson, Ga.

In California's 21st congressional district in Los Angeles County, the Negro opponents for the House of Representatives are Assemblyman Augustus F. Hawkins.

Democrat, and Herman Smith, an attorney, Republican. The district is heavily Democratic.

Three Negroes are assured of election to the California Assembly in all-Negro contests. Three will be a new high, compared with two at present. California has had at least one Negro in the assembly most of this century. Hawkins has held his post for 23 years.

New York's first Negro candidate for statewide office is Edward R. Dudley, Manhattan borough president, nominated by the Democrats for attorney general. James L. Flounoy, a Los Angeles Republican Negro, is running for one of four elective seats on the State Board of Equalization but is rated little chance of success.

Dudley, born in South Boston, Va., faces an uphill fight against the incumbent, Republican Louis J. Lefkowitz, who is running on Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's ticket.

In Massachusetts, Edward W. Brooke, a Negro, is the Republican candidate for attorney general. A poll of Bay State publishers, editors and political writers indicated he has a good chance to defeat Francis E. Kelly, his Democratic opponent.

PROBE FATAL PLANE CRASH

POTTSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Federal Aviation Agency examiners today launched an investigation into the crash of a light plane which killed the pilot.

The craft, flying through fog and drizzle, crashed on a farm eight miles east of here Tuesday. Killed was the pilot and lone occupant Richard L. Payne, 35, of East Aurora, N.Y.

Payne was chief engineer for the Carleton Controls Corp. of Buffalo, N.Y.

State police said he carried a brief case containing information regarding missile regulators involved in a contract between the Carleton firm and General Electric. Police recovered the brief case intact.

State police said the plane, a Cessna 172 Skyhawk, took off at about 1:30 p.m. from Wings Field in Whitpain Township, a Philadelphia suburb 17 miles east of the crash scene. Payne had visited the General Electric Missile Division plant in Valley Forge and was en route to Buffalo.

EXPLAIN JFK PLEDGE NOT TO INVADE CUBA

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's pledge not to invade Cuba—part of the proposed crisis settlement—does not rule out force should Cuba pose a major new threat to the hemisphere, U.S. officials said today.

American policy toward Fidel Castro's government will remain as it was before Soviet missiles arrived on the Caribbean island, they said, and Washington's efforts to isolate the Havana regime and to prevent it from sowing communism will continue. If Cuba brandishes another major threat at the Americas, the United States remains committed to defensive measures including use of force.

This interpretation of Kennedy's assurances against an invasion of Cuba given Saturday to Soviet Premier Khrushchev was supplied by high ranking U.S. authorities. Kennedy is expected to say more about it at his news conference Thursday.

IS CONDITIONAL

The President's guarantee does not take effect unless Khrushchev goes through with his part of the deal — to withdraw nuclear-capable Soviet weapons from Cuba. But questions about Kennedy's commitment are already being raised.

In New York, the formation of a "Committee for the Monroe Doctrine" was announced Tuesday night by World War I ace Eddie Rickenbacker, chairman of Eastern Air Lines.

The committee's declaration charges that the Kennedy-Khrushchev terms are contrary to the Monroe Doctrine in that it "would appear to amount to a guarantee that Cuba will, without forcible interference by the United States, be permitted to remain as a Communist colony and therefore as a base for the continued political and psychological subversion of other nations in this hemisphere."

NARROW AND SPECIFIC

Four Republican senators cautioned Tuesday against any agreement that might provide a permanent haven for communism in Cuba and protect Castro from Western Hemisphere harassment. The Cuban Revolutionary Council, announced in Miami it would proceed with armed action against Castro no matter what settlement

Nikita Khrushchev has a tough month ahead. And pressures on the Kremlin leader may induce him to take risky actions against his better judgement and once again head a nervous world toward the brink.

A week from now, the U.S.S.R. celebrates the 45th anniversary of the Bolshevik takeover of power. The Communist leadership likes to display for this anniversary. At the moment, it has none.

Two weeks from now, the Soviet Central Committee has scheduled an important meeting. It could be a grim session, with the Kremlin leadership facing up to some gloomy realities.

HE BACKED DOWN

No matter how Soviet propaganda paints it for home consumption, Khrushchev backed down in the Cuban crisis and the party leadership is aware of that. The Cuban crisis probably made

Acting U.N. Secretary-General U Thant may bring about.

Washington authorities said Kennedy's pledge — made while U.S. military preparations pointed toward a possible invasion — is narrow and specific: not to invade Cuba if the offensive Soviet weapons are removed.

some high officers within the armed forces unhappy. There are hints of disenchantment with Khrushchev's cold war generalship.

There's an annoying war going on along the Indian-Red Chinese border. It is embarrassing for Soviet policy.

NEW RESISTANCE

Plans for new pressure on West Berlin may have gone askew because of the Cuban developments. The Cuban crisis probably has made the Red Chinese and the Stalinists around the world furious. The Chinese once again are denouncing "modern revisionism," obviously meaning Khrushchev's policies.

Moscow seems to be running into resistance from the satellite states to plans for coordinating economies of the Communist world under Soviet direction as a reply to the European Common Market.

The Soviet government still struggles with agricultural and industrial problems.

For the Russians, all this tends to make Cuba part of the whole cold war picture. Failure of Khrushchev's plans there can embolden his critics who disagree with many other policies.

Red Chinese pressure on India's borders obviously has been in defiance of Khrushchev. It could even be read as a deliberate attempt to place him in an uncomfortable position. Should he side with Red China, he alienates India and the rest of the so-called non-aligned nations. If he sides with India, he widens the Communist schism.

chev's opposition inside and outside the Soviet Union conceivably can bring much pressure on him to put up or shut up. He has promised for four years to sign a treaty with East Germany and to end Western Allied rights in the isolated city.

Khrushchev probably will carry the day in the Communist party Central Committee, but the pressures undoubtedly will remain. They probably can force him eventually to make some sort of move to justify his leadership.

That would set the world's nerves on edge once again.

QUARANTINE OFF BUT U.S. FLEET NEAR

has pulled its Cuban blockade fleet into a more compact patrol area, it was learned today.

Exact boundaries of the new picket line were not disclosed, but they were reported well inside the original patrol section which stretched as much as 600 or 700 miles off Cuba, extending northeast toward Bermuda and eastward of the Virgin Islands.

The sea blockade was in suspension again today, but the quarantine fleet of carriers, cruisers, destroyers and submarines was still on station.

U Thant, acting U.N. secretary-general, had asked that the U.S. blockade of offensive arms shipments to Cuba be lifted before he began discussions in Havana with Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

In announcing Monday night that the blockade would be suspended for two days beginning at dawn Tuesday, the White House did not say whether the quarantine would go back into effect after Thant leaves Havana.

SCRANTON HITS

OPPONENTS' RECORD IN PA.

PITTSBURGH — Congressman

William W. Scranton declared tonight that "we owe it not only to ourselves, . . . to bring progress and prosperity to this state, but we owe it to our country."

"Pennsylvania must add to the strength of America, not stand as an economic sore," the Republican nominee for governor asserted. "This time when the nation is 'picking her way cautiously through a new time of crisis and peril.'"

Congressman Scranton spoke, with General Eisenhower and other GOP nominees for statewide office, at a giant rally held at the Civic Arena here.

Scranton and Congressman James E. Van Zandt, nominee for U. S. Senator, only a few hours earlier had returned by air to Pennsylvania from a high level briefing in New York on the international situation.

The clear implication was that if Pennsylvania is to contribute her full share of production to the national effort it must be done under a state government that is not burdened with the record of Leader-Lawrence failure.

At the state level, he said, "this is a battle over whether Pennsylvania can totter along for another four years with the broken promises, the poor leadership of politics first, the old-fashioned government that has cursed us for the last eight years."

He called for Republicans, Democrats and Independents alike to show by their votes on November 6 their determination to "defeat the triple enemy (on the home scene) of high unemployment, poor government and power politics."

Scranton declared it was "bad enough" that the type of government we now have in Pennsylvania has proved incapable of alleviating the human misery that stems from joblessness, and has been incapable of giving Pennsylvanians a chance at a full share of the nation's progress and prosperity.

It was worse, he said, that these human and economic miseries had been wished upon the state by an administration whose chief would cynically declare that "Pennsylvania has never had it so good."

"My appeal in this campaign," he said, "must be to people who care, not to people who sneer. I must appeal to the warmhearted, not to the cynical."

He was appalled, he declared, that his Democratic opponent would scoff that his proposals for bringing new industry and jobs to the state was "strictly for the birds."

"I submit that these words effectively sum up his lack of vision, his lack of leadership, his contemptible lack of faith in the people of Pennsylvania," Scranton said. DEMAND THAT IKE BOW OUT STIRS FUSS

By JACK BELL
 WASHINGTON (AP) — Political argument over the Cuban crisis flared up again today after a Democratic spokesman's suggestion that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower bow out of the campaign.
 Indignant Republicans found no validity in a complaint by Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., that some of Eisenhower's barnstorming statements might be misleading because they indicated "there is room for criticism of the position taken by the President" in the Cuban missile threat.
 At Gettysburg, Pa., a spokesman said Eisenhower was not available for comment.
A LITTLE VAGUE
 Hartke told a news conference Tuesday he was speaking only for the Democratic senatorial campaign committee he heads and not for the White House when he suggested Eisenhower give serious consideration to cancelling future campaign appearances.
 Hartke was vague about the specific Eisenhower statements to which he objected. He said that among other things the former Republican president had left "the clear implication that this crisis is no different from any other one."
 He said this could be interpreted abroad as indicating that there was not solid support for President Kennedy's action in ordering the quarantine of offensive arms shipments and demanding the dismantling of missile bases.

MANY NEGROES CAMPAIGN FOR PUBLIC OFFICE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Negroes are widening their quest for elective office in the United States. They stand to make gains in the Nov. 6 election.

Connecticut will elect a Negro to statewide office for the first time. Each major party nominated a Negro for state treasurer.

California will have its first Negro congressman in another all-Negro contest.

New York and Massachusetts have Negroes running for statewide office—New York for the first time.

Negroes, many of them incumbents, are running for local, or district offices, such as assemblymen, in numerous states.

The Deep South state of Georgia is slated to have a Negro in its legislature for the first time in more than a half century.

Leroy Johnson, an Atlanta Negro attorney, defeated three white candidates for the Democratic nomination to the state Senate in a newly delineated district. He will run in the general election against T. M. Alexander, a Negro who was unopposed in the Republican primary.

In Connecticut, Gerald A. Lamb, a dental technician, is running for state treasurer on the Democratic ticket, and William D. Graham, a lawyer, on the Republican. They were the first Negroes nominated for statewide office in Connecticut.

Also in Connecticut, Wilfred X. Johnson, first Negro ever elected to the state legislature, is seeking his third two-year term as a state representative. He is a native of Dawson, Ga.

In California's 21st congressional district in Los Angeles County, the Negro opponents for the House of Representatives are Assemblyman Augustus F. Hawkins.

EXPLAIN JFK PLEDGE NOT TO INVADE CUBA

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON AP—President Kennedy's pledge not to invade Cuba—part of the proposed crisis settlement—does not rule out force should Cuba pose a major threat to the hemisphere, U.S. officials said today.

American policy toward Fidel Castro's government will remain as it was before Soviet missiles arrived on the Caribbean island, they said, and Washington's efforts to isolate the Havana regime and to prevent it from sowing communism will continue. If Cuba brandishes another major threat at the Americas, the United States remains committed to defensive measures including use of force.

This interpretation of Kennedy's assurances against an invasion of Cuba given Saturday to Soviet Premier Khrushchev was supplied by high ranking U.S. authorities. Kennedy is expected to say more about it at his news conference Thursday.

IS CONDITIONAL

The President's guarantee does not take effect unless Khrushchev goes through with his part of the deal—to withdraw nuclear-capable Soviet weapons from Cuba. But questions about Kennedy's commitment are already being raised.

In New York, the formation of a "Committee for the Monroe Doctrine" was announced Tuesday night by World War I ace Eddie Rickenbacker, chairman of Eastern Air Lines.

The committee's declaration charges that the Kennedy-Khrushchev terms are contrary to the Monroe Doctrine in that it "would appear to amount to a guarantee that Cuba will, without forcible interference by the United States, be permitted to remain as a Communist colony and therefore as a base for the continued political and psychological subversion of other nations in this hemisphere."

NARROW AND SPECIFIC

Four Republican senators cautioned Tuesday against any agreement that might provide a permanent haven for communism in Cuba and protect Castro from Western Hemisphere harassment.

The Cuban Revolutionary Council, announced in Miami it would proceed with armed action against Castro no matter what settlement.

MR. K HEADS INTO TROUBLE AT KREMLIN

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Nikita Khrushchev has a tough month ahead. And pressures on the Kremlin leader may induce him to take risky actions against his better judgement and once again head a nervous world toward the brink.

A week from now, the U.S.S.R. celebrates the 45th anniversary of the Bolshevik takeover of power. The Communist leadership likes to have some spectacular success to display for this anniversary. At the moment, it has none.

Two weeks from now, the Soviet Central Committee has scheduled an important meeting. It could be a grim session, with the Kremlin leadership facing up to some gloomy realities.

HE BACKED DOWN

No matter how Soviet propaganda paints it, for home consumption Khrushchev backed down in the Cuban crisis and the party leadership is aware of that. The Cuban crisis probably made some high officers within the armed forces unhappy. There are hints of disenchantment with Khrushchev's cold war generalship.

There's an annoying war going on along the Indian-Red Chinese border. It is embarrassing for Soviet policy.

NEW RESISTANCE

Plans for new pressure on West Berlin may have gone askew because of the Cuban developments. The Cuban crisis probably has made the Red Chinese and the Stalins around the world furious. The Chinese once again are denouncing "modern revisionism," obviously meaning Khrushchev's policies.

Moscow seems to be running into resistance from the satellite states to plans for coordinating economies of the Communist world under Soviet direction as a reply to the European Common Market.

The Soviet government still struggles with agricultural and industrial problems.

For the Russians, all this tends to make Cuba part of the whole cold war picture. Failure of Khrushchev's plans there can embolden his critics who disagree with many other policies.

Red Chinese pressure on India's borders obviously has been in defiance of Khrushchev. It could even be read as a deliberate attempt to place him in an uncomfortable position. Should he side with Red China, he alienates India and the rest of the so-called non-aligned nations. If he sides with India, he widens the Communist schism.

Regarding West Berlin, Khrushchev

Acting U.N. Secretary-General U. Thant may bring about.

Washington authorities said Kennedy's pledge—made while U.S. military preparations pointed toward a possible invasion—is narrow and specific: not to invade Cuba if the offensive Soviet weapons are removed.

They described this as a small price to pay for the Soviet withdrawal, because they believed no U.S. invasion had been intended before the weapons shipments were discovered.

QUARANTINE OFF BUT U.S. FLEET NEAR

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy has pulled its Cuban blockade fleet into a more compact patrol area, it was learned today.

Exact boundaries of the new picket line were not disclosed, but they were reported well inside the original patrol section which stretched as much as 600 or 700 miles off Cuba, extending northeast toward Bermuda and eastward to the Virgin Islands.

The sea blockade was in suspension again today, but the quarantine fleet of carriers, cruisers, destroyers and submarines was still on station.

U. Thant, acting U.N. secretary-general, had asked that the U.S. blockade of offensive arms shipments to Cuba be lifted before he began discussions in Havana with Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

In announcing Monday night that the blockade would be suspended for two days beginning at dawn Tuesday, the White House did not say whether the quarantine would go back into effect after Thant leaves Havana.

SCRANTON HITS OPPONENTS' RECORD IN PA.

PITTSBURGH — Congressman William W. Scranton declared tonight that "we owe it not only to ourselves... to bring progress and prosperity to this state, but we owe it to our country."

"Pennsylvania must add to the strength of America, not stand as an economic sore," the Republican nominee for governor asserted, in this time when the nation is "picking her way cautiously through a new time of crisis and peril."

Congressman Scranton spoke, with General Eisenhower and with other GOP nominees for statewide office, at a giant rally held at the Civic Arena here.

Scranton and Congressman James E. Van Zandt, nominee for U. S. Senator, only a few hours earlier had returned by air to Pennsylvania from a high level briefing in New York on the international situation.

The clear implication was that if Pennsylvania is to contribute her full share of production to the national effort it must be done under a state government that is not burdened with the record of Leader-Lawrence failure.

At the state level, he said, "this is a battle over whether Pennsylvania can totter along for another four years with the broken promises, the poor leadership of politics first, the old-fashioned government that has cursed us for the last eight years."

He called for Republicans, Democrats and Independents alike to show by their votes on November 6 their determination to "defeat the triple enemy (on the home scene) of high unemployment, poor government and power politics."

Scranton declared it was "bad enough" that the type of government we now have in Pennsylvania has proved incapable of alleviating the human misery that stems from joblessness, and has been incapable of giving Pennsylvanians a chance at a full share of the nation's progress and prosperity.

It was worse, he said, that these human and economic miseries had been wished upon the state by an administration whose chief would cynically declare that "Pennsylvania has never had it so good."

"My appeal in this campaign," he said, "must be to people who care, not to people who sneer. I must appeal to the warmhearted, not to the cynical."

He was appalled, he declared, that his Democratic opponent would scoff that his proposals for bringing new industry and jobs to the state was "strictly for the birds."

"I submit that these words effectively sum up his lack of vision, his lack of leadership, his contemptible lack of faith in the people of Pennsylvania," Scranton said. RADIOLOGIST TESTIFIES IN CANCER TRIAL

PITTSBURGH (AP)—No medical authority can say for sure that smoking caused the lung cancer for which Pittsburgh carpenter Otto Pritchard is suing the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., says a San Francisco radiologist.

Dr. Leo H. Garland, clinical professor of radiology at the University of California, said cigarette smoking rarely causes cancer.

Dr. Garland appeared as a defense witness Tuesday in the damage suit brought by the 64-year-old Pritchard, who says Liggett & Myers' Chesterfield cigarettes gave him cancer, necessitating the removal of his right lung in 1953.

Dr. Garland testified that "cancer of the mouth, nose and throat is not rare, but cancer of the trachea is extremely rare."

William H. Eckert, counsel for Liggett & Myers, asked him to explain the significance of that statement, and Dr. Garland said: "In the case of people who inhale, the concentration of cigarette smoke inhaled must be thousands of times greater in the mouth, throat, vocal chords and trachea than it is in the lungs."

"Now, if smoking is the cause of lung cancer," he continued,

Health

Hunger and appetite
Are not one or the same.
Hunger is prompted organically.
A healthy person who is hungry
Can do without embellishments.
Hunger will provide the sauce.
Not so with appetite.

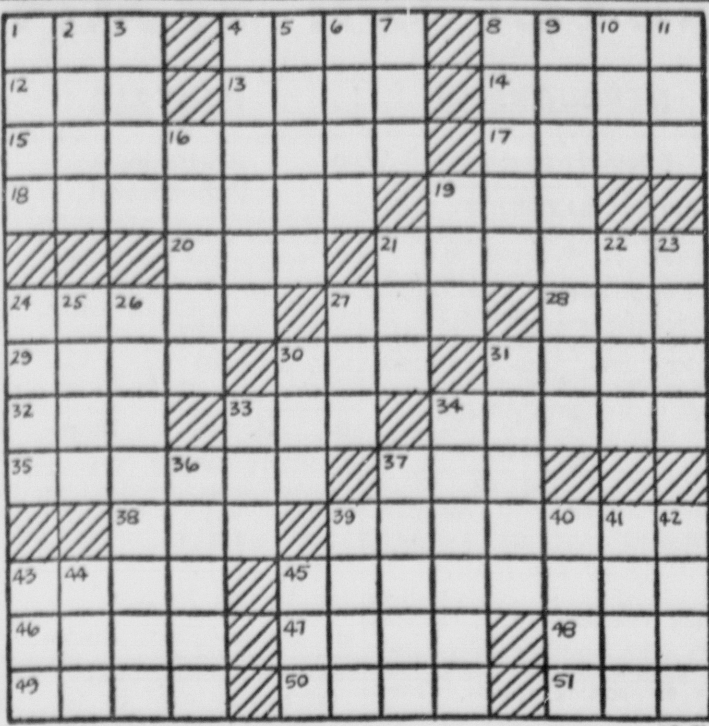

Appetite depends on the mood,
The aroma and the look of food,
The surroundings, and the company.
So here's to good appetite,
And may no one go hungry.

We are all billionnaires
In our own blood banks.
Humans have many blood cells,
About 25,000,000,000 of them.
Mostly red and some white.
Disease influences blood cells
To change in shape and number,
To alter in appearance.
A blood count is important
And is a simple process,
Requiring but a few drops
To tell the doctor much.

Pickled herring, in wine or sour cream sauce, can be found in many food markets nowadays.
This tidbit makes a delightful appetizer.

"why on earth isn't it a cause of tracheal cancer and mouth cancer? The frequency of tracheal cancer is perhaps one in 500 compared to lung cancer and most lung cancer starts in the outer parts of the lung where the concentration of cigarette smoke is still lower."
